SANE AND OLD FASHIONED 4th OF JULY CELEBRATION

Firing Spirit Gave Way to Patriotic Demonstrations—No Popular Desire for Noisy, Sputtering, Spark Flying Celebration—Greatest Street Pageant Kingston Ever Had—Fine Exercises at City Hall Park—Picnics and Park Exercises—Spectacular Floats.

Ten thousand people streamed through Broadway, watching the parade of two thousand patriots on the 143d anniversary day of American Independence. The morning opened with a cold, damp air and murky skies. The parade four hours later was started with a bright sun and cool air.

A perfect day, with, under cloudless skies gave the marching hosts pleasurable experience. During the whole of the parade which was thirty-five minutes passing the junction of Broadway and St. James street, though it occupied an hour and a half for the entire column to march to McEntee and Hone streets and counter-march to the City Hall Park, there was not a disagreeable incident, apparent in the parade column.

Prepared For Emergencies.

When the signal from the fire houses was sounded, the fire bell striking 1776, the entire car service came to a halt. When the rear of the column left St. James street at 9:55 a bunch of five cars on the St. James street tailed in behind. When the rear passed Thomas street the Colonial line cars began crossing Broadway. The car service was arranged perfectly and conducted according to order.

Chief of Police Wood, himself leading the parade, had his force of policemen perfectly arranged to control traffic and the movement of the crowds.

Chief Chipp of the fire department had every engine company ready to respond promptly to alarms. During the parade engines were located at strategic points near Broadway.

No Noisy, Sputtering Fourth.

It was a sane and safe Fourth. The car spirit, always inherent in man and boy is now finding vent in real activities. There was no popular desire for the noisy, sputtering, spark flying Fourth with its dangers of conflagration and after results in tetanus.

From the break of the day to the start of the parade the chimes in the various chime towers played patriotic and sacred airs. There was no boom of cannon. The nation is suffused with cannon for greater purposes. Fourth of July bombs and hand torpedoes swelled the noisy chorus which was not just like the usual Independence day for it was more blatant since automobiles joined in.

Large And Curious Crowds.

Kingston has not in many years so completely given up everything else to celebrate the Fourth as was the case yesterday. In most respects it was an old fashioned Fourth of July celebration. Though there was a real lack of old fashioned firecrackers. There were the crowds watching idly and curiously along the sidewalks. Here and there were improvised refreshment stands. The color was put on the war from homes and lawns. Near the street, the display, was a stand of Allied flags beautifully setting off the green of the lawn and the background of the building. The Elks displayed very elaborate decorations in American colors on their handsome building on Fair street.

At the Parks.

The three parks which the city has appropriately fitted with conveniences for the amusement of children, big and little, were crowded during the day and into the evening. These parks offered better summer attractions than in the past, keeping many in town.

The several bands brought into service for the day gave programmed concerts at the parks and marching music in the streets. Downtown the church of the Redeemer chimes played during the early hours of the day, national and war music.

During the evening some of the churches held fitting services.

The Boy Scouts in the afternoon engaged in sports and prize contests judged by representatives from the route of Poughkeepsie, Newburgh and Rhinebeck, though those troops were not formally represented as units.

The ladies of the Clinton Avenue Methodist Church made a big day for the Sunday school at Forsyth Park and served dinners here. Mayor Canfield with appropriate remarks accepted in behalf of the city the flag that was presented by the Knights of Pythias. The presentation was made by Walter C. Elston. The entire assembly that filled the park joined with musicians from Colonial band, singing in chorus to the accompaniment of instrumental music.

At Kingston Point it was a great gala day. The dancing platform was crowded afternoon and evening. The merry go round, shooting gallery and many other sports gave the crowd the fullest enjoyment.

At the Athletic Field, there was baseball. The interest centered in the game between the Holy Name Juniors of St. Joseph's Church and St. Peter's A. A. of Poughkeepsie.

The Colonial Band, divided and played at both parks, Kingston Point and Forsyth. The newly installed playgrounds are greatly appreciated.

HOSTS ON THE MARCH.

Spectacular Costumes, Great Column of Women, Grand Parade.

Promptly at 9 a. m. and on the signal sounded by the fire bells, the enormous column of marchers started at Academy Park and, led by two platoons of police, with Chief Wood at their head, swung into Broadway.

Then came a platoon of the home guard behind which Mayor Canfield and President of the Common Council Samuel M. Watts marched, side by side, carrying the colors. Grand Marshal D. G. Atkins and staff, including Admiral Francis J. Higginson and Major James Everett, honorary grand marshals, set the pace for the largest column of Fourth of July parades in uniform of our soldiers since the civil war, if indeed not larger than at that time.

Every unit, uniformed and without uniform, swung to the step that was timed by thrilling music of the bands and the martial beat of drums. There were five bands and three drum corps in line. Those from out of town marched in resplendent uniforms. Hudson and Catskill musicians responded to calls made on them by the Colonial Band of this city, which has many of its musicians away to war. The Colonial was thus able to make up two good units to march in the ranks. Then there were the East Kingston band, the Red Hook Military band and the Mt. Marion Cornet band.

The drum corps were the Ellenville, with twenty-eight pieces, the Bailey and the Kingston City.

The Floats.

The floats were only those produced by the patriotic societies. There were no advertising floats, none representing business houses. They were all gaily decorated.

The shipyard's float was the largest, carrying a remarkable duplicate of one of Uncle Sam's war vessels of the first class, carrying ten sailors in their white uniforms. On the bow was lettered, "U. S. J. N. R. of Kingston."

The Red Cross float bore a group of nurses in uniform, pyramided in support of the Sister of Mercy standing above them and cot, and the flag of our allies.

The Y. M. C. A. float carried an assembled supply of munition, impedimenta, and quartermasters' stores, guarded by a corporal's squad of troops under arms from the Home Guard.

The "S. C. 371 Junior Y. M. C. A." float represented a dug-out in the battle front, such as the Y. M. C. A. often has to maintain in its service in the trenches. It was manned by war secretaries of the Y. M. C. A. in uniform and four uniformed soldiers.

The float bearing Uncle Sam and Columbia, the world's greatest of nuptial couples, attired in American colors, made a hit along the line of march.

The Loyal Order of Moose, carrying Boy Scouts guarding Miss Liberty, attracted general attention.

The Independent Order of Red Men's float bore a wigwam and camp fire surrounded by members of the order in the costumes and feathers of the aboriginals.

First Appearance of Women's Ambulance Corps.

Following the Colonial Band marched the N. Y. State Guard, Co. M, 10th Infantry. Eighteen cars, driven by girls in khaki and caps, members of the Women's Ambulance Corps Division of the Home Defense Reserve in their uniform, carried the veterans of the Pratt Post, G. A. R. No. 127. Following were the Old Guard, the Colonial Camp, Spanish War Veterans, Tappen Camp, Sons of Veterans, Ladies' Auxiliary of Tappen Camp, Boy and Girl Scouts.

The Rotary Club turned out with its usual large number and its service flag at the head, led by the Bailey Pipe and Drum Corps and followed by the Kingston Ministerial Association and the three lodges of Odd Fellows. Behind marched the American Mechanics and their juniors, the Daughters of America and the Order of Moose with their float.

of High Falls, N. Y., a member of Co. A, 309th Machine Gun Battalion, Camp Dix, N. J.

William Brown of Hurley avenue is home on a five day furlough from Camp Dix.

Corp. Frank Cragan of Camp Dix is spending the week end with his parents at No. 8 Chapel street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Buckley, of East Kingston, have received word from their son, Private Michael J. Buckley, of his safe arrival overseas.

Private Buckley reports having encountered unusually fine weather during the voyage and much pleased with his new environment. His many friends will undoubtedly be pleased to know of his safe arrival.

UNCLE SAM NEEDS MORE MECHANICS

Opportunity For Those Who Registered Last Month To Be Placed in Engineers Corps—Opportunity of Enlisting Under This Call Closes July 10th.

The call under the Fourth Nation's Want Column offers a good opportunity for those 1918 registrants having mechanical ability, of getting into the service. White men qualified for general military service are wanted under this call.

The bulletin received today by the local exemption boards, from the adjutant general's office, stated that there is a very definite need for skilled men in the army at this time, and that there is exceptional opportunity for energetic and ambitious registrants.

The successful applicants will be placed in the Engineers Corps, destination unknown at the present time. The bulletin states that registrants of the class of 1918, provided the registrant waives all time limit for classification and examination, and those of the class of 1917 not needed for the July call, are eligible for induction.

Board officials are instructed to tell applicants not to give up their present positions until they are notified by their local boards that they have been accepted.

The following are needed: Automobile repairmen, axemen, blacksmiths, boatmen, buglers, bridge carpenters, cabinet makers, caulkers, concrete foremen, construction foremen, cooks, draftsmen, electricians, farrriers, gas engine men, horseshoers, lithographers, machinists, photographers, plumbers, powdermen, quarrymen, riggers, saddlers, shoemakers, stationery engineers, surveyors, tailors, teamsters, telephone operators, timbermen and topographers.

MOBILIZE YOUR PLEDGES IS THE CALL IN THE W. S. S.

They Have Been Slow in Coming in From the Towns, Though the City Has Generally Cleaned Up—Figures Last Audited and Reported Include No Later Than July 1st—Big Meeting Tonight.

CHAIRMAN BRINNIER'S PROCLAMATION.

To the People of Ulster County:—We have Germany on the run. There is no question but that the American and allied armies will be successful and in my judgment before January 1st, 1919.

We people at home must see that they have the necessary supplies and ammunition to force a decision promptly and it is our duty to contribute to that success by the immediate purchase of all the War Savings Stamps which we can raise money to buy. Have you gone the limit? If not, do so at once. Your children, your children, your brothers and relatives must be protected and will be by your loaning to the Government the necessary money to successfully carry on the war. Get busy and send in your pledge cards.

Respectfully,
WILLIAM D. BRINNIER,
Chairman, Ulster County, W. S. S. Com.

Kingston, July 5.

There is to be a big rally tonight at the Y. M. C. A. No chairman or captain ought to excuse his absence. Such is the hurry call of the City Chairman made on the city workers. No excuse for failing to show up. The County Chairmen will be welcomed if they can get into town for the evening, says County Chairman Brinnier.

A general hurry up call goes out today. The grand total for the county is given out by the chairman as $583,250.50. From now on, he says, the drive is to go on with the whirlwind impetus that has already been given to it.

Chairman Brinnier calls attention to the big result given in this county as compared with the returns mentioned this morning in New York City. Ulster has raised at least 50 per cent and probably more, of its quota, while New York, he says, has raised only fifteen per cent.

He has turned over to the City Chairman a large bundle of reports coming from all parts of the county. It is expected that these reports when tabulated will show tonight a big jump over the Fourth of July. In fact, the latest tabulations are given for pledges that were audited no later than last Monday.

These additional investors are welcomed in the Thousand Dollar Limit Club, to which their investments entitled them. The club is now a big part of the W. S. S. drive machinery.

Mrs. Althea Dimick,
M. J. Morris,
Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Lowe,
John E. Lindhorst.

The City Chairman calls on the Ward Captains and to make full returns tonight. Turn in all their pledges.

WAR SAVINGS STAMP DRIVE MAY REACH $1,000,000

Audited Figures to July 1, $583,130.50, With Reports Not All In and Work Done This Week Not Counted—Where the Pledges Were Made.

The grand total for Ulster county in the W. S. S. Drive, including pledged cards from all sources, is shown by the following tabulation to be $583,130.50.

The figures printed were carefully compared with the official sheets given to The Freeman, and there is found to be a small difference in these totals and those given on the official sheets.

These figures represent the pledges audited by Auditor Edward Coykendall, those that have come to him during the drive beginning June 22 and including Monday, July 1st.

There are a great many returns that have not been accompanied by the pledge cards, that will doubtless swell the totals to close to $600,000.00. Again, there are returns for the five days during the balance of the week which will doubtless bring the totals up to nearly, if not quite, a million dollars.

The only town or ward missing is Marlborough. That will help swell the result. There also may be later savings societies, for the organizers have been busy. In the meantime there also will be later returns from the war savings societies as well as the towns and wards that are listed.

Here is the table giving official figures of investments in War Savings Stamps through the War Savings Drive of June 22-July 8, by wards and towns and through W. S. Societies, up to and including Monday, July 1:

LOCAL BOARDS RECEIVE HEAVY DRAFT CALLS

Divisions 1 and 2 Will Have to Send 374 Men to Camp the Latter Part of This Month—Destination and Definite Date of Entrainment to be Announced Later.

Local boards for Divisions 1 and 2 of Ulster county will have to furnish a total of 374 men during the period beginning July 22nd and ending July 27th.

Division 1 will have to furnish 237 men; Division 2 will have to provide 137 men.

The bulletin received by the local boards today from the adjutant general's office stated that these figures were approximate and subject to change at any time prior to receipt of mobilization order.

The bulletin stated that the destination of the men and the date of entrainment would be announced later.

Class 1 men eligible for general military service will go under this call.

If the call for Division 3 men is as heavy as the quotas for Division 1 and 2 it will mean that at least 500 Ulster county men will go.

This is the largest quota for any one contingent in Ulster county.

This call will practically exhaust all the men of Divisions 1 and 2 in Class 1, excepting the 1918 registrants.

Plans are being formulated to give the men the largest and most stirring parade and demonstration that has been held on any of the occasions when the men entrained.

Checks and money-orders should be made payable to Second Red Cross War Fund.

Payments may be made in cash, or by check or money-order, and should be made to either Edward Coykendall, cashier, Second Red Cross War Fund, 22 Ferry street, Kingston, N. Y., or to Ulster County Chapter, American Red Cross, 576 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y.

Attorney Daniel B. Deyo, trustee in bankruptcy of George Van Nossdall, of New Paltz, will sell at public auction at New Paltz Monday, July 8, at 10 o'clock, the bankrupt stock of hardware, plumbing goods, fixtures, etc.

WAR AT A GLANCE

That Americans are now helping the British defend the road to Amiens, down the Somme Valley, has just been revealed by the British war office.

It was in keeping with the occasion that these Americans, on the vital part of the Picardy front should be allowed the honor of attacking with Australians on the Fourth of July—at a time when England and France were helping the United States celebrate the birth of American independence.

The Americans again gave a good account of themselves for the Allies stormed the village of Hamel, sweeping on to the east of that place, where they repelled counter attacks last night.

Americans are brigaded with the French and British in all of the important zones of fighting in France.

Troops from the United States are on the Marne front, before Chateau Thierry, helping the French to defend the road to Paris; they are holding part of the line near Montdidier where the Germans made such violent efforts to break through in March, and now it is shown that detachments have taken their place alongside of the Australians on the Somme front.

For some time a force of Americans has been training behind the British lines in Flanders, ready to spring to the aid of their British brothers-in-arms, should von Hindenburg attempt another drive towards the Channel coast.

From the great numbers of prisoners and German machine guns captured in the operation on the Somme yesterday, it is evident that the Australians and the Americans fighting with them, carried out their assault with great dash and brilliant vigor.

There have been no enterprises of importance on that section of the front held by the French. The French army command has confined its latest operations to raids and to harassing the German lines with artillery and patrols.

Local fighting, in which the Italians have made further gains, has continued over a great extent of the southwestern front. This has been most severe on the lower Piave, in the coastal district.

PRESIDENT ASKS CONTROL OF WIRES

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, July 5.—President Wilson this afternoon gave notice to congress that he wished the Aswell resolution giving him control of telegraphs and telephones passed before a recess is taken.

The message was given to Chairman Pou of the rules committee in a telephone conversation. Chairman Pou's committee sat immediately and reported out the special rule which will make the resolution in order for consideration late this afternoon.

At Katrine Tonight.

This evening "Ye Old District School" will be given at Lake Katrine Grange Hall by 125 young people of Poughkeepsie. Dancing will follow the school session with Palen's orchestra furnishing the music. Refreshments may also be obtained.

LIMITED SERVICE CLERKS ARE CALLED

Local Boards for Divisions 1 and 2 of Ulster county received this afternoon from the adjutant general's office, a telegram stating that clerks were needed under call 881 in the Quartermaster's Corps. This call is for white men, limited service men only. The men are to enter July 15th. The boards are instructed to wire total applications up to July 9th. The telegram stated that a bulletin would follow, giving full particulars.

Fired on Red Cross. By Telegram to The Freeman.

Paris, July 5.—Following the usual inhuman tactics of warfare, a Boche aviator attacked a Red Cross hospital behind the lines with machine gun fire, wounding John M. S. E. Eighmey.

James of Bristol, R. I., both aviators, about fifteen feet above the hospital, firing upon the French wounded. The large Red Cross flag on the building was plainly visible to the Boche aviator.

MOBILIZE YOUR PLEDGES IS THE CALL IN THE W. S. S.

They Have Been Slow in Coming in From the Towns, Though the City Has Generally Cleaned Up--Figures Last Audited and Reported Include No Later Than July 1st--Big Meeting Tonight.

CHAIRMAN BRINNIE'S PROCLAMATION.

To the People of Ulster County:—We have Germany on the run. There is no question but that the American and allied armies will be successful and in my judgment before January 1st, 1919.

We people at home must see that they have the necessary supplies and ammunition to force a decision promptly and it is our duty to contribute to that success by the immediate purchase of all the War Savings Stamps which we can raise money to buy. Have you gone the limit? If not, do so at once. Your children, my children, your brothers and relatives must be protected and will be by your lending to the Government the necessary money to successfully carry on the war. Get busy and send in your pledge cards.

Respectfully,
WILLIAM D. BRINNIE,
Chairman, Ulster County, W. S. S. Com.

Kingston, July 5. There is to be a big rally tonight at the Y. M. C. A. No chairman or captain ought to excuse his absence. Such is the hurry call of the City Chairman made on the city workers. No excuse for failing to show up. The County Chairmen will be welcomed if they can get into town for the evening, says County Chairman Brinnier.

A general hurry up call goes out today. The grand total for the county is given out by the chairman as $583,250.50. From now on, he says, the drive is to go on with the whirlwind impetus that has already been given to it.

Chairman Brinnier calls attention to the big result given in this county as compared with the returns mentioned this morning in New York City. Ulster has raised at least 50 per cent and probably more, of its quota, while New York, he says, has raised only fifteen per cent.

He has turned over to the City Chairman a large bundle of reports coming from all parts of the county. It is expected that these reports when tabulated will show tonight a big jump over the Fourth of July. In fact, the latest tabulations are given for pledges that were audited no later than last Monday.

These additional investors are welcomed in the Thousand Dollar Limit Club, to which their investments entitled them. The club is now a big part of the W. S. S. drive machinery.

Mrs. Althea Dimick,
M. J. Morris,
Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Love,
John E. Lindhorst.

The City Chairman calls on the Ward Captains and to make full returns tonight. Turn in all their pledges.

WAR SAVINGS STAMP DRIVE MAY REACH $1,000,000

Audited Figures to July 1, $583,130.50, With Reports Not All In and Work Done This Week Not Counted--Where the Pledges Were Made.

The grand total for Ulster county in the W. S. S. Drive, including pledged cards from all sources, is shown by the following tabulation to be $583,130.50.

The figures printed were carefully compared with the official sheets given to The Freeman, and there is found to be a small difference in these totals and those given on the official sheets.

These figures represent the pledges audited by Auditor Edward C. Kendall, those that have come to him during the drive beginning June 22 and including Monday, July 1st.

There are a great many returns that have not been accompanied by the pledge cards, that will doubtless swell the totals to close to $600,000.00. Again, there are returns for the five days during the balance of the week which will doubtless bring the totals up to nearly, if not quite, a million dollars.

The only town or ward missing is Marlborough. That will help swell the result. There also may be later savings societies, for the organizers have been busy. In the meantime there also will be later returns from the war savings societies as well as the towns and wards that are listed.

Here is the table giving official figures of investments in War Savings Stamps through the War Savings Drive of June 22-July 8, by wards and towns and through W. S. Societies, up to and including Monday, July 1:

LOCAL BOARDS RECEIVE HEAVY DRAFT CALLS

Divisions 1 and 2 Will Have to Send 374 Men to Camp the Latter Part of This Month--Destination and Definite Date of Entrainment to be Announced Later.

Local boards for Divisions 1 and 2 of Ulster county will have to furnish a total of 374 men during the period beginning July 22nd and ending July 27th.

Division 1 will have to furnish 237 men; Division 2 will have to provide 137 men.

The bulletin received by the local boards today from the adjutant general's office stated that these figures were approximate and subject to change at any time prior to receipt of mobilization order.

The bulletin stated that the destination of the men and the date of entrainment would be announced later.

Class 1 men eligible for general military service will go under this call.

If the call for Division 3 men is as heavy as the quotas for Division 1 and 2 it will mean that at least 500 Ulster county men will go.

This is the largest quota for any one contingent in Ulster county.

This call will practically exhaust all the men of Divisions 1 and 2 in Class 1, excepting the 1918 registrants.

Plans are being formulated to give the men the largest and most stirring parade and demonstration that has been held on any of the occasions when the men entrained.

WHERE TO PAY
RED CROSS PLEDGES

The July payment on Red Cross pledges became due on July 1. In making payment, subscribers are requested to use the remittance slip taken from the Red Cross calendar, which gives the name and address of the contributor, and the amount paid on account.

Checks and money-orders should be made payable to Second Red Cross War Fund.

Payments may be made in cash, or by check or money-order, and should be made to either Edward Cosken, dall, cashier, Second Red Cross War Fund, 22 Ferry street, Kingston, N. Y., or to Ulster County Chapter, American Red Cross, 576 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y.

WAR AT A GLANCE

That Americans are now helping the British defend the road to Amiens, down the Somme Valley, has just been revealed by the British war office.

It was in keeping with the occasion that these Americans on the vital part of the Pheary front should be allowed the honor of attacking with Australians on the Fourth of July—at a time when England and France were helping the United States celebrate the birth of American independence.

The Americans again gave a good account of themselves for the Allies stormed the village of Hamel, sweeping on to the east of that place, where they repelled counter attacks last night.

Americans are brigaded with the French and British in all of the important zones of fighting in France.

Troops from the United States are on the Marne front, before Chateau Thierry, helping the French to defend the road to Paris; they are holding part of the line near Montdidier where the Germans made such violent efforts to break through in March, and now it is shown that detachments have taken their place alongside of the Australians on the Somme front.

For some time a force of Americans has been training behind the British lines in Flanders, ready to spring to the aid of their British brothers-in-arms, should von Hindenburg attempt another drive towards the Channel coast.

From the great numbers of prisoners and German machine guns captured in the operation on the Somme yesterday, it is evident that the Australians and the Americans fighting with them, carried out their assault with great dash and brilliant vigor.

There have been no enterprises of importance on that section of the front held by the French. The French army command has confined its latest operations to raids and to harassing the German lines with artillery and patrols.

PRESIDENT ASKS
CONTROL OF WIRES

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, July 5.—President Wilson this afternoon gave notice to congress that he wished the Aswell resolution giving him control of telegraphs and telephones passed before a recess is taken.

The message was given to Chairman Pen of the rules committee in a telephone conversation. Chairman Pen's committee sat immediately and reported out the special rule which will make the resolution in order for consideration late this afternoon.

At Katrine Tonight.

This evening "Ye Old District School" will be given at Lake Katrine Grange Hall by the young people of Ponckhockie. Dancing will follow the school session with Paul's orchestra furnishing the music. Refreshments may also be obtained.

Bankrupt Sale.

Attorney Daniel E. Devo, trustee in bankruptcy of George Van Nee, fall of New Paltz will sell at public auction at New Paltz Monday, July 8, at 10 o'clock, the bankrupt stock of hardware, plumbing goods, fixtures, etc.

DR. J. R. GILLETT REJECTED TWICE

For a Commission in Medical Reserve Corps Denied—Now Located on Elmendorf Street.

Dr. J. R. Gillett, one of the best known physicians in Ulster county, has just received word from the war department that his application for a commission in the Medical Reserve Corps has been denied on the ground of physical disability. This is the second time that Dr. Gillett has made an unsuccessful attempt to enter the service of our country, and both times his application has been rejected.

Dr. Gillett has moved his residence and office from No. 248 Smith avenue to No. 197 Elmendorf street, where he is now located. In the future he will have office hours in the afternoon by appointment only, and will confine his practice to maternity cases and children's diseases.

AGRICULTURE.

The country needs all its strength and vitality. Weeds sap the strength and vitality of plants which are needed by our soldiers and allies. Watch the weeds as you would a German spy.

The clock shelf, the cupboard, the calendar are all right in their place but are poor substitutes for necessary files and books for keeping records on the farm. Business methods pay in farming.

With the increased interest in sheep raising it might be a good plan to send to the state college of agriculture at Ithaca for a copy of R. F. F. 115 "Keeping Sheep for Profit." A postal card request will bring it.

Thomas Jefferson said: "Cultivators of the earth are the most valuable citizens. They are the most vigorous, the most independent, the most virtuous; and they are tied to their country and wedded to its liberty and interests by the most lasting bonds."

Nothing will cause indigestion and general disorder in chickens quicker than food which is musty or moldy. Look out for beef scrap particularly. It can be quickly tested by pouring a little boiling water on a small amount. Your nose will tell you if the scrap is not good.

Examination for Postmaster.

A civil service examination will be held in this city on July 27, for the position of postmaster at Ashokan. Compensation $514 per year. Application blanks, form 1753, and full information concerning the requirements of the examination can be secured from the postmaster at Ashokan or from the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

LANESVILLE.

Lanesville, July 3.—Mrs. DeWitt Curtis and children of Arena, who have been spending the past week with relatives here, have returned home.

Paul Jansen who has been attending Stevens College, in Hoboken, N. J., the past year, spent a few days here recently with his mother, and has returned, having obtained employment there for the summer.

Mrs. Francis Barber of New Haven, Conn., is visiting relatives here.

C. R. Lane and daughter, Miss Marion, and Harry Smith, were Kingston callers in Kingston one day last week.

Arthur Crosby of Kingston spent Tuesday night with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. John Krom and daughter of Poughkeepsie have been spending a few days with Mrs. Krom's mother, Mrs. J. Rion, here.

Mrs. Frank Stillier and sister, Miss Mary Lane, of Poughkeepsie, are spending the summer at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Bowser and son of Grantwood, who after spending a few days with Mrs. M. Jansen here, have returned home, leaving their son to spend a few weeks longer with his grandmother.

The Misses Helen and Clara Lane have gone to New York for the summer, where they have obtained employment.

Mrs. H. S. Lane and little daughter, Henrietta, left on Monday, a week ago, for New York, and on Tuesday Mrs. Lane underwent a very successful operation in the Hahnemann Hospital, and we are glad to say that she is steadily, though slowly, improving.

David Burger of Kerhonkson made a flying trip to this place on Sunday.

Walter Davenport lost a fine cow this past week.

This place was shocked to hear of the death of Ira Davenport. His many friends mourn his loss.

J. Markle purchased of Mrs. M. C.

Depuy on Tuesday a fine Guernsey calf.

Mrs. M. C. Depuy is now taking the milk to Kyserlike creamery.

Henry Lawrence sawed wood for Ben Schoonmaker on Tuesday.

Miss Alice Coddington has secured a position at Lake Minnewaska for the summer.

J. S. Depuy picked 20 quarts of huckleberries on Monday.

Miss Helen V. Lawrence, who has been attending school in Cortland for the winter, went to Minnewaska on Saturday.

W. Coddington is cutting stone for Harry Lawrence of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Coddington, who have been employed in Jersey for some time, have been spending a few days with friends here.

The Cusk.

The cusk is a fish of the cod family and has much the same habits and characteristics. It frequents rocky ledges in the north Atlantic, especially off the shore of Newfoundland and Scandinavia. It is more extensively used in northern Europe than in America, but it is sold in considerable quantities at the fish markets in New England.

Notified to Appear in Court And Failed to do so And is Fined $5—Other Cases in Police Court.

Abram Basch of Hasbrouck avenue was arrested on Thursday evening by Officer Connelly on a warrant secured by Officer Healey. Tuesday he left his horse standing on the Stand untied and when Officer Healey called his attention to the violation he failed to heed the warning and was notified by the officer to appear in court Wednesday. This Basch failed to do and a warrant was issued for his arrest. This morning Judge Schirick fined him $5, which he paid.

James McCoy, who is employed by a summer resident at St. Remy, was fined $5 Thursday for driving a Ford car with a 1917 auto plate. The arrest was made by Officer Reardon.

David Slott was arrested on the Fourth by Officer Shader for driving his car on the left side of the street and gave bail for his appearance in court Monday.

William Smith, better known as Silver Dollar, was arrested by Officer Healey on the Fourth for public intoxication. This is not his first appearance in court. He was fined $5 which he paid. When arrested he had over $18 in his pocket which he had not spent. He was too drunk to remember what happened he said.

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

2309—A Stylish and Unique Design.

Satin, velvet, cashmere and serge are very good for this style. A bit of contrasting color in facing or piping, or a touch of embroidery would be nice for trimming. The tunic could be omitted. The waist is fitted on a lining. The pattern is cut in 7 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust measure. It requires 6½ yards of 44 inch material for a 36 inch size. The skirt measures about two yards at the foot.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Rondout, N. Y. Be sure to state size wanted.

DR. J. R. GILLETT REJECTED TWICE

For a Commission in Medical Reserve Corps Denied—Now Located on Elmendorf Street.

Dr. J. R. Gillett, one of the best known physicians in Ulster county, has just received word from the war department that his application for a commission in the Medical Reserve Corps has been denied on the ground of physical disability. This is the second time that Dr. Gillett has made an unsuccessful attempt to enter the service of our country, and both times his application has been rejected.

Dr. Gillett has moved his residence and office from No. 245 Smith avenue to No. 197 Elmendorf street, where he is now located. In the future he will have office hours in the afternoon by appointment only,
and will confine his practice to maternity cases and children's diseases.

AGRICULTURE.

The country needs all its strength and vitality. Weeds sap the strength and vitality of plants which are needed by our soldiers and allies. Watch the weeds as you would a German spy.

The clock shelf, the cupboard, the calendar are all right in their place but are poor substitutes for necessary files and books for keeping records on the farm. Business methods pay in farming.

With the increased interest in sheep raising it might be a good plan to send to the state college of agriculture at Ithaca for a copy of R. F.
P. 115 "Keeping Sheep for Profit."
A postal card request will bring it.

Thomas Jefferson said: "Cultivators of the earth are the most valuable citizens. They are the most vigorous, the most independent, the most virtuous; and they are tied to their country and wedded to its liberty and interests by the most lasting bonds."

Nothing will cause indigestion and general disorder in chickens quicker than food which is musty or moldy.
Look out for beef scrap particularly.
It can be quickly tested by pouring a little boiling water on a small amount. Your nose will tell you if the scrap is not good.

Examination for Postmaster.

A civil service examination will be held in this city on July 27, for the position of postmaster at Ashokan.
Compensation $514 per year. Application blanks, form 1753, and full information concerning the requirements of the examination can be secured from the postmaster at Ashokan or from the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington,

KRIFFLEBUSH MAN IN ARMY IN FRANCE

EDWARD D. WOOD

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Wood of Kripplebush, N. Y., went with drafted men to Camp Upton in February and assigned to Supply Company, 306th Infantry. Now somewhere in France.

LANESVILLE.

Lanesville, July 3.—Mrs. DeWitt Curris and children of Arena, who have been spending the past week with relatives here, have returned home.

Paul Jansen who has been attending Stevens College in Hoboken, N. J., the past year, spent a few days here recently with his mother, and has returned, having obtained employment there for the summer.

Mrs. Francis Barber of New Haven, Conn., is visiting relatives here.

C. R. Lane and daughter, Miss Marion, and Harry Smith, were Kingston callers in Kingston one day last week.

Arthur Crosby of Kingston spent Tuesday night with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Krom and daughter of Poughkeepsie have been spending a few days with Mrs.
Krom's mother, Mrs. J. Rion, here.

Mrs. Frank Stiller and sister, Miss Mary Lane, of Poughkeepsie, are spending the summer at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Bowser and son of Grantwood, who, after spending a few days with Mrs. M. Jansen here, have returned home, leaving their son to spend a few weeks longer with his grandmother.

The Misses Helen and Clara Lane have gone to New York for the summer, where they have obtained employment.

Mrs. H. S. Lane and little daughter, Henrietta, left on Monday, a week ago, for New York, and on Tuesday Mrs. Lane underwent a very successful operation in the Hahnemann Hospital, and we are glad to say that she is steadily, though slowly, improving.

Borden's EAGLE BRAND

EAGLE BRAND Will Keep Baby Strong and Well Through the Hot Summer

You do everything you can to make and keep your little one cool and comfortable during the hot days—to guard against the withering effects of scorching weather.

"Be sure the Eagle is on the label!"

Perfect health will enable him to resist mid-summer weather terrors.

Borden's Eagle Brand builds sturdy strength—gives your baby glowing health. Eagle Brand is absolutely pure and highly nourishing. It is retained and digested easily by baby even during summer's heat.

Through 60 torrid summers and as many frigid winters
Eagle Brand has been the most satisfactory infant food next to Nature's own food.

Good druggists and grocers everywhere sell Borden's Eagle Brand.

a few days with friends here.

This Cusk.

The cusk is a fish of the cod family and has much the same habits and characteristics. It frequents rocky ledges in the north Atlantic, especially off the shore of Newfoundland and Scandinavia. It is more extensively used in northern Europe than in America, but it is sold in considerable quantities at the fish markets in New England.

KINGSTON, N. Y., JULY 5, 1918.

ONE DAY'S LAUNCHING.

The vessels launched on the Fourth of July alone, in celebration of the day, show that in a very short time we have really become a nation of shipbuilders. The 37 steel and 52 wooden vessels, with a total tonnage of 439,886, were launched from Gulf as well as Atlantic and Pacific ports. The tonnage added in this one day was greater than the entire output of the year 1915-16, and the number of vessels was greater than our record achievement for the month of May, while the tonnage was more than 40,000 in excess of the launchings for the entire year of 1901. The announcement of the United States Shipping Board shows that no less than 65 American ports were represented and that the operating yards included 9 on the Gulf of Mexico, 10 on the Great Lakes, 12 on the Atlantic and 16 on the Pacific coast.

The names of the steel vessels are mostly English, including such as War Compass, Everglades, Victorious, Independence, Defiance, etc., the names of the wooden vessels are more largely Indian or foreign, including such as Coweta, Okesa, Banago, Arenac, Quapaw, Katonah, Unatilla, Colindo, etc. A number of the ports of all the four sections named had double launchings. Such was the response which the shipbuilders of America have given to the suggestion of the chairman of the Shipping Board that they commemorate this year's Fourth by launching from their ways as many ships as possible. Obviously this single day's achievement, with all that follows during the succeeding 27 days, will cause July to beat the records for all previous months.

UNEASY LIES THE HEAD—

Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown, it was said of old, but never was there more basis for the truism than in these times of crumbling autocracies under an enlightened world's insistent demand for freedom and safety for all. Perhaps no one realized it more vividly than the former Czar of Russia who was hounded by the fear of his own subjects and suffered from an almost insane dread of appearing in public even guarded by trusted bands of Cossacks. His assassination by some fanatics, or even his formal execution by the faction in control of his country, in view of the present chaotic Russian conditions, has long seemed a matter of course. The only wonder is that it was delayed so long, and doubtless the real explanation of the delay is to be found in the long arm of Germany—naturally on the side of autocracy and its representatives—which now reaches far into the former Russian empire.

Except in his indecision and general weakness of character Nicholas Romanoff personally was not lacking at fault, being virtually a helpless figurehead born into outworn institutions with the shaping of which he had nothing to do and for the reform of which he was totally incapable. The superstitious pupil of medieval monks as well as the pliant tool of medieval autocracy, Nicholas was altogether out of harmony with the prevailing spirit of his times, and even had he been strong instead of weak, he could neither have understood nor adapted himself to the modern spirit. By his violent and shocking death he may serve his country better than he did in all his life, for it seems likely to have a sobering effect upon his freedom-mad and moonshine-chasing people.

SEX AND SELECTION.

AMONG women who want the vote as a gift from Uncle Sam rather than from their own State there are those who will be not at all discouraged by the defeat of the nation-wide suffrage resolution. They expect women to have their way in this matter eventually and meanwhile to have it, as usual, in all others. A New York woman lecturer, for example, has announced that every woman can marry if she wants to because there are "a million and a half more men than women in this country." This statistical statement having been accepted, one practical-minded listener requested particulars as to methods of appropriating this surplus of men, asking if women ought "to propose." Then the confident lecturer sidestepped a bit by merely remarking that woman

"doesn't have to" because "the feminine prerogative of passive attraction" is quite sufficient and that there is no need of assuming "the masculine prerogative of pursuit." The departure of more than the stated surplus of men to war was not mentioned, and the lecturer went on to show that, after all relatively few men are worth marrying. "In the good times coming," she said, "many men will find themselves rejected as damaged goods; the celibate class will increase steadily when women realize their duty as selectors." The well trained American man expects to be ruled by a woman, at least in private, but he would prefer not to be expected to walk on too high stilts of perfection. Our soldiers, for example, when on their return from the war they seek domestic quiet and felicity, will dread too close an examination with a view to the rejection of "damaged goods." A high ideal is desirable on both sides, but a certain measure of tolerance of the imperfect is necessary in our flesh and blood world.

LITTLE LAUGHS.

Photographer—"This is the picture that I took of your wife. Do you think it does her justice?" The husband—"No; thank goodness." Judge.

"Do you consider this poem worth sending to a magazine?" The expert considered. And then rendered this verdict: "No; with three-cent postage."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"Who is your best-known citizen?" "Old Jabe Green," replied the resident of Squibsville. "And what did he ever do?" "Nothing," "cept to live 100 years."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Mrs. Greener (at her first game of football)—"Oh, isn't it awful? Horrible! Why, they will kill that poor fellow underneath." Her daughter (an enthusiast)—"Don't be silly, mother. He doesn't mind it. He's unconscious by this time."—Boston Transcript.

"Are you getting ready to make a big speech when congress convenes?" "No," answered Senator Sorghum; "but unless a new topic develops I think I have offered or listened to every conceivable subject available up to this time."—Washington Star.

In the Old Days.

Lord Northcliffe at a Washington luncheon was talking about the British premier.

"Mr. Lloyd George is the idol of the nation now," he said. "It is hard to believe how unpopular he was, at least among the Unionists, once."

"Among the many stories circulated about Mr. Lloyd George's unpopularity at that time, there was one which concerned a rescue from drowning."

"The heroic rescuer, when a gold medal was presented to him for his brave deed, modestly declared: 'I don't deserve this medal. I did nothing but my duty. I saw our friend here struggling in the water. I knew he must drown unless some one saved him. So I plunged in, swam out to him, turned him over to make sure it wasn't Lloyd George, and then I hugged him to safety on my back.'"

Alex Comes to New York.

H. C. Witwer has written a story for the American Magazine in which this occurs:

"Say," sports Alex, getting peevish, "can't a man find no attention here?"

"Look in the telephone book under the A's," I says.

"Never mind, dearie," the wife tells him. "I'll listen. What's on your mind? She goes over and sits on the arm of his chair, knowin' full well it gets my goat. 'Now, boys,' says she, 'let's all be friends, even if we do belong to the same family. What is it, Alex? Speak up like a man.'"

"Well," he says, the Gaffney people has started to make touring cars and roadsters! What d'ye think of that?"

"I'm simply dumfounded!" I says. "Has congress heard about this?"

Had Her Suspicion.

Mrs. Johnson, the widow, was engaged at her wash tub, when there entered to see her Mr. Botts, a devoted admirer and suitor.

After a bit Mrs. Johnson asked: "Yo' sho' yo' loves me?"

"Why Mrs. Johnson, of co'se I's sho'."

Then, from Mrs. Johnson, after a suspicious survey of Mr. Botts:

"Yo' ain't gone an' lost yo' job, has yo'?"—Everybody's Magazine.

Painless Dentistry

The difference between painless and painful dentistry depends upon the carefulness and skillfulness of the operator. With good instruments, fresh medicines, local anaesthetics and nitrous oxide gas a careful and skillful dentist can perform all operations painlessly, even to the extraction of teeth.

Painless methods, earnest endeavor and reasonable prices have in thirty years, made the Cady Dental Corporation the largest dental organization in New York state.

City Comforts
are chiefly running water. That's something you can have. One of our Leader Water Systems will give you bathroom luxury, kitchen and laundry comfort, and a fire protection with a water pressure equaling that of a small city. You can have running water in stable, garden and field. The cost will be lower perhaps than you think. Let us give you an estimate on your needs. Hand, gasoline or electric driven.

SHIP MEN ENJOY AN OLD TIME PICNIC

Over One Thousand Enjoyed Outing of Kingston Shipbuilding Corporation—Music and Vaudeville—Refreshments and Prizes.

The employees of the Kingston Shipbuilding Corporation enjoyed an old fashioned picnic on the grounds of Peter Barmann, near the West Shore railroad, on the Fourth of July. The picnic and outing of the employees with their families and friends was attended by over one thousand.

There was real Jazz music for a Jazz Band from New York had been engaged to furnish music for dancing, while a team of acrobats and a juggler, all from New York, gave an entertainment that lasted all afternoon and well into the evening. There was also a Puch and Judy show, which was thoroughly enjoyed by the children. One of the features of the afternoon was that given by one of Kingston's ventriloquists, Mr. Delevan, whose entertainment was most pleasing to the younger folks, and was enjoyed by the elder as well. A large platform had been erected for dancing. It was kept in constant use while the strains of the Jazz Band made it impossible for those who danced to keep their feet still.

Throughout the afternoon there were a number of races. There were potato races, sack races, wheel barrow races, climbing the greasy pole, catching the greased pig, the man's race a tug of war and numerous other contests and sports.

The greased pig was well greeted and it kept the entire audience keyed up to the highest pitch of enjoyment as they watched the efforts to capture Mr. Pig.

W. T. Rigby, the resident inspector, U. S. N., was awarded the prize for the handsomest man, and it is intimated that he had something to do with the selection of the committee that awarded the prize.

He also won the fat man's race and was awarded a watch.

There were numerous prizes given for handsome men and men not so handsome, for the handsomest baby, the mother with the largest family and the parents with the largest number of sons in the service of our country. The prizes were watches and $5 Thrift Stamps.

The best looking mother was Mrs. Harry Arnold and she was awarded a $5 Thrift Stamp.

The best looking baby under two years, was little Miss Vivian Gordon Richards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Richards, and she also was awarded a $5 Thrift Stamp.

The parents with the largest family were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brayton who have ten living children. They were also awarded the prize for having the largest number of sons in the service. They have three sons with Uncle Sam.

The first prize for dancing went to J. Kline and Mrs. Silkworth. The prize for the handsomest young lady was awarded to Mary Kenoskie.

Just who won the prize for the homeliest man is a deep dark secret and the prize winner announced that while he did not like to question the judgment of the committee, he thought that he was at least as good looking as certain members of the committee who he would leave unnamed and the picnic guests could judge for themselves.

It should not be forgotten also that refreshments were served from tables that had been erected on the ground. And judging by the amount of refreshments consumed the guests had not left their appetite behind.

Over fifty watermelons disappeared where they would do the most good and the number of ice cream cones and frankfurters consumed if laid end on end would reach from Ferry street to North Front street, one of the mathematicians figured. There was also endless numbers of bottles of ginger pop and other soft drinks disposed of.

Every thing possible was done to arrange for the comfort of the guests. Tents had been erected for shelter from the sun, and these tents, with the trees, afforded ample shade for those in attendance.

As one of the guests remarked there had not been another outing just like it held in Kingston in thirty years, and he ought to know whereof he spoke.

The entire arrangement of the outing was in charge of a most efficient committee of the shipyard workers, and that their efforts were appreciated was clearly shown by the bright and smiling faces of all who attended.

TWILIGHT LEAGUE SEASON'S SCHEDULE

Notified to Appear in Court And Failed to do so And is Fined $5—Other Cases in Police Court.

Abram Basch of Hasbrouck avenue was arrested on Thursday evening by Officer Connelly on a warrant secured by Officer Healey. Tuesday he left his horse standing on the Stand untied and when Officer Healey called his attention to the violation he failed to heed the warning and was notified by the officer to appear in court Wednesday. This Basch failed to do and a warrant was issued for his arrest. This morning Judge Schirick fined him $5, which he paid. James McCoy, who is employed by a summer resident at St. Remy, was fined $5 Thursday for driving a Ford car with a 1917 auto plate. The arrest was made by Officer Reardon.

David Stott was arrested on the Fourth by Officer Shader for driving his car on the left side of the street and gave bail for his appearance in court Monday.

David R. Rosenbaum and Bert J. Keiser, both of New York, were arrested by Officer Lawrence the Fourth for passing a trolley car on the left hand side of the street. They gave cash bail for their appearance in court later.

William Smith, better known as Silver Dollar, was arrested by Officer Healey on the Fourth for public intoxication. This is not his first appearance in court. He was fined $5 which he paid. When arrested he had over $18 in his pocket which he had not spent. He was too drunk to remember what happened here said.

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

2309—A Stylish and Unique Design. Satin, velvet, cashmere and serge are very good for this style. A bit of contrasting color in facing or piping, or a touch of embroidery would be nice for trimming. The tunic could be omitted. The waist is fitted on a lining. The pattern is cut in 7 sizes. 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust measure. It requires 6 1/4 yards of 44 inch material for a 36 inch size. The skirt measures about two yards at the foot. A pattern of two illustrations mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Rondout, N. Y. Be sure to state size wanted.

WHAT THEY ARE

Official Statement of Union Organizer
As to Purpose of Strike By Workers on Local Ship Yards.

The following statement in regard to the local ship yard strike has been furnished The Freeman by General
Organizer John Rice:

July 4th, 1918.

To the Editor of the Kingston Daily
Freeman:

Sir:—Under date of July 3rd,
1918, the Kingston Daily Freeman
published an article bearing on the strike of the men in the several shipyards which I believe is misleading
inasmuch that it does not quote the facts which caused the men to cease
work. The facts are as follows: During the month of March, 1918, the ship carpenters and caulkers who were members of the United Brotherhood, took up the question of the eight hour day, and appointed a committee of its members to visit the several employers of the shipyards
and request of them recognition of the eight hour day, the employers as usual denied the request and refused
to discuss the question.

The local body, let the matter rest
for some time, because some of the men had stated that certain of the employers had told them that they would meet the conditions which would be established by the government, in those yards doing government work, where the award was made by the government recognizing the eight hour day and time and
one-half for overtime. The employers forgot about their previous promise
and continued to hold to the ten hour
day. The members of the union
then requested their national president to send in a representative to assist them to organize the mechanics
more thoroughly and help them in their effort to better their conditions
relative to hours and wages. This request was granted by their national president and an organizer was sent. About four weeks ago, the local
at a special meeting, adopted a resolution which contained a request to the ship yard employers of Kingston
to grant the men the eight hour day,
and time and one-half for overtime and double time for Sunday and holidays (if worked) and the same rate of pay as set forth in the government award, the same to go into effect July 1st, 1918, which the men
felt they were justified in asking.
They also appointed a committee of
two (of which the writer was one) to visit all the employers and place the request of the men before them and request an answer. On June 17th,
the committee visited the several employers and placed the request of the men before them and requested an answer to same. The employers in most cases refused to consider the request (one employer refusing even to look at it.) The committee then made their report to the men in meeting assembled and the report
was laid over to a special meeting held on June 27th at which meeting
the men decided that if the employers did not concede the eight hour
day and time and one-half for overtime that they would lay down their tools, which was done by both union
and non-union men in the several yards. The men on strike also appointed a committee to meet with any of the employers and said committee stands ready and willing to meet them in behalf of the men at any time. I may further add that the men have and are acting in a peaceful and law abiding manner in spite of any insinuation or assertion of any one.

Respectfully
JOHN RICE,
General Organizer United Brotherhood.

ELLENVILLE.

Ellenville, July 5.—The Fourth
passed quietly in Ellenville. All business was suspended and if it had not been for the floating of the American flag from business places
and from residences, it would hardly seem as if the Fourth of July was celebrated here. At St. John's Episcopal Church a service of prayer and patriotic hymns was held in the morning at 10 o'clock. It was a beautiful service in which those in attendance with Dr. Hobson had a part. The prayers were for our country, our boys over there and for victory.

J. Potter, of Ellenville, has had the excellent opportunity of six weeks'
attendance at the clinics of the famous
Mayo Brothers in Rochester, Minn., where 65,000 cases a year are handled and from there Lieut. Potter
was ordered to the evacuation hospi-

to go overseas now at any time.

stated that mail was being received
by him from Camp Dix several months overdue, but he was glad to

KINGSTON, N. Y., JULY 5, 1918.

ONE DAY'S LAUNCHING.

The vessels launched on the Fourth of July alone, in celebration of the day, show that in a very short time we have really become a nation of shipbuilders. The 37 steel and 52 wooden vessels, with a total tonnage of 439,886, were launched from Gulf as well as Atlantic and Pacific ports. The tonnage added in this one day was greater than the entire output of the year 1915-16, and the number of vessels was greater than our record achievement for the month of May, while the tonnage was more than 40,000 in excess of the launching for the entire year of 1901. The announcement of the United States Shipping Board shows that no less than 65 American ports were represented and that the operating yards included 9 on the Gulf of Mexico, 10 on the Great Lakes, 12 on the Atlantic and 16 on the Pacific coast.

The names of the steel vessels are mostly English, including such as War Compass, Everglades, Victorious, Independence, Defiance, etc., the names of the wooden vessels are more largely Indian or foreign, including such as Coweta, Okesa, Banago, Arenac, Quapaw, Katonah, Unatilla, Colindo, etc. A number of the ports of all the four sections named had double launchings. Such was the response which the shipbuilders of America have given to the suggestion of the chairman of the Shipping Board that they commemorate this year's Fourth by launching from their ways as many ships as possible. Obviously this single day's achievement, with all that follows during the succeeding 27 days, will cause July to beat the records for all previous months.

UNEASY LIES THE HEAD.

Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown, it was said of old, but never was there more basis for the truism than in these times of crumbling autocracies under an enlightened world's insistent demand for freedom and safety for all. Perhaps no one realized it more vividly than the former Czar of Russia who was hounded by the fear of his own subjects and suffered from an almost insane dread of appearing in public even guarded by trusted bands of Cossacks. His assassination by some fanatics, or even his formal execution by the faction in control of his country, in view of the present chaotic Russian conditions, has long seemed a matter of course. The only wonder is that it was delayed so long, and doubtless the real explanation of the delay is to be found in the long arm of Germany—naturally on the side of autocracy and its representatives—which now reaches far into the former Russian empire.

Except in his indecision and general weakness of character Nicholas Romanoff personally was not largely at fault, being virtually a helpless figurehead born into outworn institutions with the shaping of which he had nothing to do and for the reform of which he was totally incapable. The superstitious pupil of medieval monks as well as the plant tool of medieval autocracy, Nicholas was altogether out of harmony with the prevailing spirit of his times, and, even had he been strong instead of weak, he could neither have understood nor adapted himself to the modern spirit. By his violent and shocking death he may serve his country better than he did in all his life, for it seems likely to have a sobering effect upon his freedom-mad and moonshine-chasing people.

SEX AND SELECTION.

Among women who want the vote as a gift from Uncle Sam rather than from their own State there are those who will be not at all discouraged by the defeat of the nation-wide suffrage resolution. They expect women to have their way in this matter eventually and meanwhile to have it, as usual, in all others. A New York woman lecturer, for example, has announced that every woman can marry if she wants to be, because there are "a million and a half" more men than women in this country. This statistical statement having been accepted, one practical-minded listener requested particulars as to methods of appropriating this surplus of men, asking if women ought "to propose." Then the confident lecturer sidestepped a bit by merely remarking that woman

"doesn't have to" because "the feminine prerogative of passive attraction" is quite sufficient and that there is no need of assuming "the masculine prerogative of pursuit." The departure of more than the stated surplus of men to war was not mentioned, and the lecturer went on to show that, after all relatively few men are worth marrying. "In the good times coming," she said, "many men will find themselves rejected as damaged goods; the celibate class will increase steadily when women realize their duty as selectors." The well trained American man expects to be ruled by a woman, at least in private, but he would prefer not to be expected to walk on too high heels of perfection. Our soldiers, for example, when on their return from the war they seek domestic quiet and felicity, will dread too close an examination with a view to the rejection of "damaged goods." A high ideal is desirable on both sides, but a certain measure of tolerance of the imperfect is necessary in our flesh and blood world.

LITTLE LAUGHS.

Photographer—"This is the picture that I took of your wife. Do you think it does her justice?" The husband—"No; thank goodness." Judge.

"Do you consider this poem worth sending to a magazine?" The expert considered. And then rendered this verdict: "Not with three-cent postage."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"Who is your best-known citizen?" "Old Jabez Green," replied the resident of Squibsville. "And what did he ever do?" "Nothing," replied the other. "He lived 100 years."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Mrs. Greener (at her first game of football)—"Oh, isn't it awful! Horrible! Why, they will kill that poor fellow underneath!" Her daughter (an enthusiast)—"Don't be silly, mother. He doesn't mind it. He's unconscious by this time."—Boston Transcript.

"Are you getting ready to make a big speech when congress convenes?" "No," answered Senator Sorghum. "Not unless a new topic develops. I think I have offered or listened to every conceivable subject available up to this time."—Washington Star.

In the Old Days.

Lord Northcliffe at a Washington luncheon was talking about the British premier.

"Mr. Lloyd George is the idol of the nation now," he said. "It is hard to believe how unpopular he was, at least among the Unionists, once."

"Among the many stories circulated about Mr. Lloyd George's unpopularity at that time, there was one which concerned a rescue from drowning."

"The heroic rescuer when a gold medal was presented to him for his brave deed, modestly declared:

"I don't deserve this medal. I did nothing but my duty. I saw one friend here struggling in the water. I knew he must drown unless some one saved him. So I plunged in, swam out to him, turned him over to make sure it wasn't Lloyd George, and then I lugged him to safety on my back."—New York Evening Post.

H. C. Witwer has written a story for the American Magazine in which this occurs:

"Say," snorts Alex, getting peevish, "can't a man find no attention here?"

"Look in the telephone book under the A's," I says.

"Never mind, dearie!" the wife tells him. "I'll listen. What's on your mind?" She goes over and sits on the arm of his chair, knowing full well it gets his goat. "Now, boys," says she, "let's all be friends, even if we do belong to the same family. What is it, Alex? Speak up like a man."

"Well," he says, "the Gadoover people has started to make touring cars and roadsters! What I've think of that?"

"I'm simply dumfounded!" I says. "Has congress heard about this?"

Had Her Suspicion.

Mrs. Johnson, the widow, was engaged at her wash tub, when there entered to see her Mr. Botts, a devoted admirer and suitor.

After a bit Mrs. Johnson asked: "To 'sho' yo' loves me?"

"Why Mrs. Johnson, of co'se I's sho'!"

Then, from Mrs. Johnson, after a suspicious survey of Mr. Botts: "Yo' ain't gone an' lost yo' job, has yo'?"—Everybody's Magazine.

Painless Dentistry

The difference between painless and painful dentistry depends upon the carefulness and skillfulness of the operator. With good instruments, fresh medicines, local anesthetics and nitrous oxide gas a careful and skillful dentist can perform all operations painlessly, even to the extraction of teeth.

Painless methods, earnest endeavor and reasonable prices have in thirty years, made the Cady Dental Corporation the largest dental organization in New York state.

HIGHLAND.

Highland, July 3.—Mr. and Mrs. George Eyett spent last Friday in Poughkeepsie with friends and enjoyed the pleasures of the city.

Many of the people around here are picking currants and berries to obtain some extra money, for it is needed in these days.

Clarence Spedes was in West Park calling on friends last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Atkins entertained relatives from New Paltz last week and on Sunday they were guests of relatives out there and their daughter, Ethel, is now spending some time with those people during the summer vacation.

B. N. Whitley is in the city for a short time.

Captain R. H. Decker was in Poughkeepsie the first of the week on business.

Ladies' Auxiliary Club will hold their regular meeting on Friday, the 12th of this month, instead of the first Friday in the month on account of the Chautauqua, which opens up on the 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rhoades of Milton avenue have been entertaining guests recently from Kingston and Walden.

Pastor G. Schofield, with his father, mother and sister were in Middletown the first part of the week attending the Christian Endeavor convention. They report a very interesting meeting and were just delighted with the trip.

Miss Marjorie Melins of Vineyard avenue is now taking a summer course in art at Saratoga.

Walter Seaman was in New York city last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Elting and Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman have had as their guest Miss Ella Zimmerman of New Jersey.

Joseph Schantz and daughter, Mattie, have been guests recently of relatives in Hoboken, N. J.

Miss Margaret Coddington, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Coddington, will spend some time at Chodice Lake with several girls from this place who will all be employed there for several weeks. It is a very nice place and plenty of boarders to keep all busy.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cummings and children motored to Ashokan dam recently and had a delightful trip.

Camp Fire Girls held a food sale last Saturday on Ehrickson's lawn. We have not heard what the result was, yet we think they disposed of their eatables all right, for that seems easy for so many people do not bake, and even though they do, they once in a while like to sample some one else's cooking and baking.

Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Coon recently entertained relatives and friends from out of town.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cornell were out of town the week end attending the funeral services of a relative.

Daughters of America held their regular business session on Wednesday evening. They had a fine attendance and installed their officers for the ensuing term. At close of session refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

Some members of the M. E. choir were entertained at the Whitley home last Friday evening. They had a pleasant time and very bountiful refreshments were served at a late hour and every one there declared it fine.

Miss Laura Palmer leaves on Saturday for a summer course at Cornell. She has been home for two weeks and enjoyed her short vacation very much.

Elliott Thompson, who has been on an ocean voyage for a long time and who arrived in town two weeks ago for a brief visit with his family, has returned for another long trip. He is feeling first class and looking fine and we are sure, from what he told us, he has been well taken care of. Although it is just lonesome to be away from your family and friends, he states, yet how little we know what is in store for any of us. We trust and hope he may return soon for another period of recreation at his home here.

Miss Ruby Cornell is spending part of her vacation in Clintondale with relatives and she just enjoys every moment of it and when time for studies come on she will be ready for fall work after having such a grand vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. George Auchmoody were out for an auto trip Tuesday.

Mrs. Myron Terpening has returned home after spending two weeks in New Haven, Conn., with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Graham.

J. J. Donovan and Joe Hockstiner spent a few days in New York city the past week and had a fine time.

Mrs. Henry Hovet and Mrs. J. C. Leo and son arrived from New York the first of the week to occupy their summer home on Maple avenue.

Mrs. Minnie Anderson of New York city spent a few days in this place with relatives.

Charles Stall is confined to his home by illness. His friends hope for his speedy recovery. He is a brother-in-law of C. C. Whittaker and is employed in his store.

Mr. and Mrs. Winchester Howell of Bogota, N. J., have been in this place spending the 4th and a few days besides with Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Maynard at their home on Main street.

James H. Rease was a business visitor in Poughkeepsie Tuesday.

The Rev. F. M. Turrentine, a former pastor of the M. E. Church here, occupied the pulpit of this church last Sunday morning and preached a "land sermon." He and his family have a host of friends here, and all were delighted to hear him preach. They are living here at present but the Rev. Mr. Turrentine is away a great part of the time. He is looking fine and feeling the same.

LEIBHARDT.

Liebhadt, July 3.—Alton Hornbeck of Whitfield, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Brown.

Mrs. Agnes Brown, Mrs. L. E. Lawrence, D. J. Brown and children, Rex, William and Agnes Brown, spent Friday in Kingston.

A farewell party was held at the

SHIP MEN ENJOY AN OLD TIME PICNIC

The employees of the Kingston Shipbuilding Corporation enjoyed an old fashioned picnic on the grounds of Peter Barmann, near the West Saucer railroad, on the Fourth of July. The picnic and outing of the employees with their families and friends was attended by over one thousand.

There was real jazz music for a jazz band from New York had been engaged to furnish music for dancing, while a team of acrobats and a juggler, all from New York, gave an entertainment that lasted all afternoon and well into the evening. There was also a Puch and Judy show, which was thoroughly enjoyed by the children. One of the features of the afternoon was that given by one of Kingston's ventriloquists, Mr. Delevan, whose entertainment was most pleasing to the younger folks, and was enjoyed by the elder as well.

A large platform had been erected for dancing. It was kept in constant use while the strains of the jazz band made it impossible for those who danced to keep their feet still. Throughout the afternoon there were a number of races. There were potato races, sack races, wheel barrow races, climbing the greasy pole, catching the greased pig, the tug of war and a number of other contests and sports.

The greased pig was well greased and it kept the entire audience keyed up to the highest pitch of enjoyment as they watched the efforts to capture Mr. Pig.

W. T. Rigby, the resident inspector, U. S. N., was awarded the prize for the handsomest man, and it is intimated that he had something to do with the selection of the committee that awarded the prize.

He also won the fat man's race and was awarded a watch.

There were numberless prizes given for handsome men and men not so handsome, for the handsomest baby, the mother with the largest family and the parents with the largest number of sons in the service of our country. The prizes were watches and $5 Thrift Stamps.

The best looking mother was Mrs. Harry Arnold and she was awarded a $5 Thrift Stamp.

The best looking baby under two years, was little Miss Vivian Gordon Richards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Richards, and she also was awarded a $5 Thrift Stamp.

The parents with the largest family were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brayton who have ten living children. They were also awarded the prize for having the largest number of sons in the service. They have three sons with Uncle Sam.

The first prize for dancing went to J. Kline and Mrs. Silkworth. The prize for the handsomest young lady was awarded to Mary Kenoskie.

Just who won the prize for the homeliest man is a deep dark secret and the prize winner announced that while he did not like to question the judgment of the committee, he thought that he was at least as good looking as certain members of the committee who he would leave unnamed at the picnic guests could judge for themselves.

It should not be forgotten also that refreshments were served from tables that had been erected on the ground. And judging by the amount of refreshments consumed the guests had not left their appetites behind.

Over fifty watermelons disappeared where they would do the most good and the number of ice cream cones and frankfurters consumed if laid end on end would reach from Perry street to North Front street, one of the mathematicians figured. There was also endless numbers of bottles of ginger pop and other soft drinks disposed of.

Every thing possible was done to arrange for the comfort of the guests. Tents had been erected for shelter from the sun, and these tents,

with the trees, afforded ample shade for those in attendance.

As one of the guests remarked there had not been another outing just like it held in Kingston in thirty years, and he ought to know whereof he spoke.

The entire arrangement of the outing were in charge of a most efficient committee of the shipyard workers, and that their efforts were appreciated was clearly shown by the bright and smiling faces of all who attended.

Discovered Baldwin Apple.
The other day the people of Woburn, Mass., unveiled a granite shaft and bronze figure of a colonial soldier, Col. Loammi Baldwin, who was at the battle of Lexington, and who had a notable war and peace record, but who is best remembered as the discoverer of the Baldwin apple. The apple rather than his war record has made Col. Baldwin famous.

Strange Bequest.
A strange bequest was made by a retired soap manufacturer recently. He left the sum of a little more than eleven hundred dollars, to found a home for "homeless cats and dogs," but stipulated that the money is not to be touched until the year 2163, by when the donor estimates it will have increased to two hundred million dollars.

SAME FOURTH OF JULY

ing their service flag with 90 stars, 32 marching in frock suits and high silk hats and wearing the sash of their order, were led by the Red Hook Military Band and followed by a contingent of Knights. Behind them marched St. Peter's Sick and Aid Society and St. Peter's Holy Name Society. This division was altogether five hundred strong. Sheriff Smith was the leader.

Alien Citizens Turn Out.
At the head of the next division, led by Marshal Tunis H. Haulenbeck, came seven girls carrying at rest between them a huge flag. They were followed by the Slavonic and Polish Societies, their children dressed in white and their wives and daughters. Then came the Red Men with their flag. There were three hundred of the alien citizenry and their children in this division. The Elks brought up the rear with a force of more than sixty in the march and were preceded by their service flag.

The Italian organizations, fully two hundred in column, were preceded by the Mt. Marion Band. Four girls bore between them a large, handsome floral piece. Included in this division were the Sons and Daughters of the Rising Star, the Shepherds of Bethlehem and the United Commercial Travellers.

Large Representation of Trades.
Twenty Y. M. C. A. workers, in the Y. M. C. A. war uniform, made a pleasing spectacle in contrast with the civilian garb of the marchers in their division.

More than 600 men of the trades that were largely represented, some of them carrying their tools, marched behind banners representing each the distinct trade in line, the carpenters, 150 men; calkers, 50; helpers, who carried the flag inscribed "100 per cent for W. S. S."; painters; electricians; engineers; plumbers; iron workers with their sledge and hammers on their shoulders. The Sons of America bore the banner inscribed "25,000," showing the number this organization attained in this country.

The Hiltibrant Dry Dock and the Kingston Shipbuilding Companies turned out two hundred strong. The powder and hand grenade companies were largely represented. The John N. Cordts, the Rapid and Excelsior Hose Companies marched in uniforms and equipment that were resplendent and bright. There was a large delegation from the United Brewers.

The Eighth Division was the feature of the parade. A body of nearly two hundred Red Cross women in their uniform of white, and their caps with decorated bands and flowing white veils, the Red Cross on their bosoms, made a very attractive appearance. It's the first time the Red Cross has appeared this year in parades in such numbers. The women marched steadily and apparently without fatigue.

The "Farmettes" brought up the rear of the column. But they attracted as much attention as any other unit. They were girls about a height. They stepped with regular, military tread, keeping their heads up and eyes to the front. They are surely warriors in defence of food supplies. They wore the single-piece costume, bloomers and blouse made of blue material, the bloomers held below the knees with khaki puttees. Their heads were covered with wide-brimmed straw hats set jauntily on their hair that was snugly coiled up behind, and their arms were bare to the elbows, showing a farm-working tan that is proof they work in the fields. Some of them carried hoes and others rakes. Some tin water pails.

Leading this small but 100 per cent efficient fighting column, a part of the main support of our boys at the front, was Thomas J. Comerford. Smilingly he moved his troops to the beat of the drums. Over his right shoulder he carried the American flag. Swinging at his left with rhythmic cadence was a large book. Perhaps it was a camouflage for a dinner pail. If you were to look at its title closely you might have read as follows: "A Digest on Raising Tomatoes and Potatoes for the Boys; or, How to Best Farm It With the Girls."

Notes of the Parade.

The Ellenville Martial Corps, V. T. Wright, drum major, came to Kingston and marched in the parade without reward other than a sense of having done a patriotic duty, their leader refusing to accept any compensation. There are no war profiteers among the Ellenville musicians.

A train loaded with troops went down the West Shore railroad just as the Red Cross nurses reached the crossing. The soldiers gave the Red Cross ladies a great ovation.

EXERCISES IN THE CITY HALL PARK

Speeches That Touched the Hearts of All. With Pleasing Incidents That Were Patriotic and Sentimental Entertained Large Attendance.

Mayor Palmer Canfield who presided over the exercises in the city hall park did not forget the War Stamp Campaign. He reminded the gathering that this country is in need of dollars every minute, and that the citizens are expected to keep rolling in the dollars as long as the war lasts. He explained the present war savings drive and invited investments then and there.

The mayor gave force to an important suggestion. The time would come, he said, when Kingston would be gathered in the same place to dedicate a tablet that will eventually be put up, bearing the names of all the Kingston boys who have been in this war.

The Rev. P. C. Weyant was introduced and offered the invocation. Then followed the reading of President Wilson's address to the American people urging all to fittingly celebrate this Fourth of July. The large assembly then rose and sang America. This was followed by the presentation of the city's service flag, bearing 864 stars, a gift from the Rotary Club. The flag was presented by Arthur C. Connelly in a few well chosen words. Samuel M. Watts, president of the common council, replied in fitting terms, expressing the thanks of the city for this thoughtful act on the part of the Rotary Club and referring to the patriotism that club has shown in many ways through the war.

Miss Virginia Los Kamp, rendered the solo, "It's a Long, Long Trail," which brought her an encore to which she responded by singing the "Marseilles," the gathering joining with her, at her request. Here she gave a pleasing token of the love this country has for France. To the French colors that she waved over her she gave a salute after which she reverently lifted one fold of the flag and pressed it to her pretty lips.

The speech of Judge William Cunningham was enthusiastically received. His theme was of course the war. He referred to this celebration as the most important this country had given on this day in its history since the signing of the Declaration of Independence. The first in which we are pledging our whole future to the victories that are to make the people of the world free. Among other things that he said that brought applause from his listeners was the reading of a part of Will Carleton's poem on the celebration of the Fourth.

The ladies of Tappan Camp auxiliary gave a touch of sentiment to the occasion by giving our flag their salute with the benediction of their order.

PATRIOTIC PROGRAM AT PORT EWEN

At the repetition of the grand patriotic celebration to be given tonight by Hope Lodge, K. of P., at their own Pythian Hall, at Port Ewen, the program will be as follows:

Opening remarks by Brother Henry E. McKenzie. There will be shown on the screen 39 stereoscopic pictures of all "the boys" who are now in the service of our country and who live in Port Ewen, Sleightsburgh and Ulster Park, N. Y.

The Rev. C. Van Oostenbrugge will speak briefly on "The Boys of Ulster Park."

The Rev. Eugene Bookhout will speak briefly on "The Boys of the M. E. Church of Port Ewen."

Bro. Henry E. McKenzie will speak briefly on "The Boys of 'Below the Hill,'" (as East Port Ewen is called), and on the "Boys of Sleightsburgh."

The Rev. L. Appleborn will speak on "The Boys of the Reformed Church of Port Ewen."

28 additional war slides which have been ordered sent from New York city will be shown if they arrive in time.

"The Significance of the Flag," a patriotic address by Rev. C. Van Oostenbrugge, pastor of the Reformed Church of Ulster Park, N. Y.

The Liberty Choir of 40 singers, accompanied by the Liberty Orchestra, will again sing the same patriotic songs and one or two more.

With the compliments of Hope Lodge, each lady present will be presented with a fine copy of the war song, "I Want to be a Soldier, Pa, and Fight for Uncle Sam," by Bro. George Prophet. This is a true story of how a child was imbued with the spirit of war. The edition was gotten up in the national colors.

The dancing, which had to be postponed Tuesday night, owing to the lateness of the hour, will positively take place tonight. The music will be furnished by the Liberty Orchestra and by some young ladies of the choir who are good pianists.

John D. Prophet was very much handicapped in doing his work at the lantern last Tuesday night. The crowd kept surging toward his lantern as much as almost to upset it twice. The pictures will show up much better tonight.

Children coming to this celebration must be accompanied by their parents or some other adult.

The doors will not be open until 8 p. m. The entertainment will start at 8:30 sharp.

Samuel Gompers says: "There are still many to whom this world cataclysm has so little meaning that they are still pursuing luxuries and self-indulgence." Are you one of these people, or do you save to the utmost of your ability and with your savings buy War Savings Stamps?

Justice to Women! Stand by the President!

The House of Representatives at Washington has passed by a vote of 274 to 136 a joint resolution, submitting to the various States for ratification, a suffrage amendment providing that

"The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by any State on account of sex."

This Constitutional amendment is now held up in the United States Senate for lack of two votes to make two-thirds majority.

YOU can help to pass this amendment by signing the appended petition to the Senate and getting your friends to sign it. The Hearst papers from the Atlantic to the Pacific will make your voice heard at Washington. Send your petition to

PETITION TO THE SENATE FOR A SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT

PETITION to the Senate to Support the President of the United States and Pass the Suffrage Amendment in Accordance with the Request of the President of the United States.

TO THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES:

The President says that the Suffrage Amendment should be passed as a just recognition of the work American women have done for the support of the war. We agree with the President.

The President says that this Suffrage Amendment is a necessary war measure; that it will help to win the war.

Senators, that alone is surely reason enough why you should vote for the amendment.

Senators, your petitioners urge you to stand by the President and to heed his advice, and to vote for the Suffrage Amendment both as a war measure that will help us to win victory sooner and as an act of high justice to the patriotic women of the United States.

SCOUT CAMP OPENS TOMORROW

The summer camp for the Boy Scouts of this section of the Hudson valley opens tomorrow on the Esopus creek at the point where the Sawkill enters the Esopus, about two miles from Katrine station. All is in readiness for the boys, a building having been erected for the kitchen and office, with plenty of tent equipment. Camp Wagon will be in charge of Scout Executive Birch, who has been working with Scout Executive Soles before the latter left to enter service, and everything will be done to make the camp both educational, healthful and recreational for the lads.

No better nor more wholesome summer outing could be imagined for lads of Scout age, and the cost, thanks to the generosity of some friends, will be practically nominal, $4 a week. Even at this small cost there will be many boys, just fairly aching for a little real camp experience, who will not be able to pay the $4 for a week of such boy happiness. Consequently any person or persons who can afford to give $4 or more for the purpose of sending some lad to the camp for a week or more should communicate with Scout Commissioner Abram Freeman.

Not only will the boys have excellent food—plain but wholesome—and plenty of exercise and fun, together with a necessary amount of work, they will also be safeguarded by having a physician in attendance, etc.

For the sake of our Scouts and those who may come to Camp Wagon from the surrounding country, let us do all in our power to make the camp a success.

Remove Smell of Paint.
Place a pan full of lighted charcoal in middle of room and throw over it two handfuls of juniper berries, shut the windows and doors for a day and the smell will disappear.

The advantage of this is that you will not have to remove tapestry or furniture, as the smoke of the juniper berries is not injurious to them.

Seashells Instead of Glass.
One curious thing noted by Americans in the Philippines was the use by natives of seashells in lieu of window glass. There is a bivalve mollusk, native to the waters of that part of the world, which has a shell seven or eight inches in diameter, so thin as to be transparent. It is plentiful and costs nothing. Glass is expensive.

The KITCHEN CABINET

It is almost always when things are all blocked up and impossible that a happening comes. If you are sure that you are looking, and ready, that is all you need. God is turning the world around all the time.—Whitney.

SEASONABLE SUGGESTIONS.

Try these fish balls: Put a tablespoonful of butter in a saucepan; add the same quantity of flour, and when smooth, stir in a half-cupful of sour cream; remove from the fire and add a beaten egg, salt and pepper to taste, and a cupful of fish that has been pounded to a paste. Cool and shape into balls; dip in egg and crumbs and brown in hot fat. Serve with sauce made from the bones simmered in water to cover, strain and thicken with flour and butter cooked together.

Lemon Catsup.—Mix a tablespoonful of grated horseradish with the grated rinds of four lemons; add three teaspoonfuls of salt, the juice of the lemons, and two tablespoonfuls each of mustard and celery seed, four cloves and a dash of red pepper. Boil 30 minutes and put away six weeks. This is fine to serve with fish.

Current Mint Sauce.—Cut in small pieces two-thirds of a glass of currant jelly; add one and a half teaspoonfuls of finely chopped mint, and the grated rind of a quarter of an orange. Serve with mutton.

Barbecued Ham.—Wipe a thick slice of ham and remove the surplus fat, which may be fried out and saved for various uses. Cover the ham with lukewarm water and let stand an hour. Drain, wipe and put into a hot pan to brown well on both sides. Remove the ham, and to the fat in the pan, add three tablespoonfuls of vinegar, mixed with one teaspoonful of mustard, one half-teaspoonful of sugar and a few dashes of paprika. When well heated pour over the ham. Barley Flour Hermit.—Take a half cupful of shortening, three tablespoonfuls of milk, three teaspoonfuls of baking powder, teaspoonful each of cloves and cinnamon, a cupful of sugar, two cupfuls of barley flour, a teaspoonful of allspice, a half-teaspoonful of salt, and a cupful of chopped dates. Roll and cut or drop from a teaspoon.

A bit of lemon jelly left over from a previous meal, if combined with a few stewed prunes and a bit of cream will make a most dainty dessert.

SCOUT RALLY JULY FOURTH

Boy Scouts of Ulster County in Camp in Forsyth Park—Contests, Inspection and Award of Prizes.

In spite of the disappointing and in a sense the disconcerting fact that Scout Executive Soles was so hastily called to service on Tuesday, to report in Boston on Saturday morning, and was obliged to leave town on Wednesday evening, the rally planned by him and practically arranged by him proved a great success. The Scout Council was fortunate enough to secure immediately the services of Herbert Bircher, a most efficient Scout man, as Scout Executive. Having worked with Mr. Soles in preparing for the rally as well as the camp which opens on Saturday, and having the lively and capable co-operation of Scout Master Soles, who was to have acted as officer of the day in any event, Scout Executive Bircher and Scout Master Soles, with the loyal backing of the Scouts themselves, put through the rally in great shape.

The Scouts began arriving at the camp at Forsyth Park on Wednesday evening. There were five tents soon pitched and the big camp fire was built in the sand pit, when greatly to the disappointment of all the Scouts, it came on to rain so hard that no camp fire stunts were possible. Guards were posted for the night to watch the camp. Senior Patrol Leader George Matthews of Troop 6 having the first half of the night and Senior Patrol Leader Vernon Beehler of Troop 5 the second half of the night. A guard was set for each hour of the night. Two Scouts coming over late into camp were halted and punished for the breaking of rules. Early Thursday morning setting up exercises were followed by the flag raising and inspection of tents. The first prize for best camp was awarded to Troop 5; the second to Troop 6. During the day, Jerry Yaple, of the U. S. S. Huntington, formerly a member of Troop 1, who is now home on furlough, was the guest of honor of the Scouts.

Following breakfast and inspection, the Scouts lined up for the big Fourth of July parade, and marched to town, taking their places with the other marchers. A very special prize of a handsome bugle will be awarded to the best appearing troop in that parade. For some reason there was a slight misunderstanding regarding the awarding of this prize yesterday, and the judges did not go out to Forsyth Park to award the prize, greatly to the disappointment of the Scouts. As soon as the announcement of the winning troop will be made in The Freeman.

Directly after dinner the contests and demonstrations took place. There were seven events, for which the troops received points, which added together gave a first, second and third prizes to the winning troops. These were inspection, fire building, centipede race, knot tying contest, stretcher race, Paul Revere relay race, shoe race.

In commenting on these events it should be stated that they are especially valuable as creating that team spirit which is these days recognized as its true worth.

The fire building contest, for the most part with two boys from a troop at least, consisted of striking a fire with not more than two matches, keeping the fire burning so as to boil water in a pan set over the fire, each pan containing the same amount of water. The first pan of water to boil, won the prize or the fire builders. Prizes in this contest were won as follows: First to Troop 6, Floyd Hart, and Clifton Eckert; second by Troop 5, Milton Budd and Archie Huestis; third by Accord Troop, John Myers and Harry Lawrence.

The centipede race, wherein the boys of the various troops, as many as cared to enter, astride a rope raced for a goal, was won by Troop 6, first; Accord Troop, second; Troop 5, third.

The knot tying contest was won by Troop 6, first; Troop 5, second; Accord Troop, 3.

The stretcher race, one of the best, consisted of one lad acting as the injured patient laid upon the ground, starting from a set point, two lads

from each troop, with only their staves, rushed to the patient, pulled off their scout coats on the poles, forming a stretcher, placed the patient thereon and hurried him back to the starting point. This was won: First by Troop 5; second by Accord Troop; third by Hudson Troop.

The Paul Revere Race (Relay), wherein several lads act as horses while one is the rider. He jumps on the back of his first steed who runs with him to the second, upon whose back he must jump without touching the ground, and so on to the end. This race was won by Troop 6, first; Troop 5, second, and Accord Troop third.

The last event, the shoe race consisted of the Scouts taking off their shoes tossing them into a pile, running to a certain point and back, finding their own shoes, putting them on and lacing them and running back to the given point. Kingston Troop five, first; Accord Troop, second, and Troop 6, third.

As a result of these events, which counted points, prizes were awarded as follows:—First prize "First Aid Kit," Kingston Troop 5, having 26 points.

Second prize, Boy Scout bronze statuette, Kingston Troop 6, 24 points.

Third prize, Troop Record Book, Accord Troop, 8 points.

Then there were some clever special events. Splendid signalling was done by Edmund Beehler, sending; Vernon Beehler, receiving; Robert Hart recording. The message sent was "America Forever," and the winners belong to Troop 5. Each received a medal.

Troop stunt prizes were awarded to Troop 5 of Kingston, receiving a shield bearing the Scout insignia, while a second prize will be awarded the Accord Troop.

The elephant rider's tourney was won by Clifton Eckert and Fred Dressler of Troop 6, one receiving a Scout axe and the other a Scout knife. The events were all warmly contested, and there was a splendid spirit shown among the losing as well as the winning Scouts, speaking well for the future of scouting in this vicinity.

At the close of the contests, Scout Master Cole, called the winners forward, and Scout Executive Bircher presented the prizes, with a few words of commendation, and expressing for all the deep regret that Scout Executive Soles could not have been present to have reaped the reward of his efforts as shown in the successful rally.

KNIGHTS OF ROAD

By MELLICENT BLEYER.

(Copyright, 1918, by Western Newspaper Union.)

"Well, that's the limit! What's come over you—gone clear daffy?" Coarse-grained and hoarse-throated as he was, there was more of wonder than ridicule in the tones of Big Reddy, professional hobo. It was at the camp of a group of wandering ones that Reddy had come across Mystery Blair gazing fixedly at a photograph. With a quick flush Blair thrust the picture out of sight.

"Just honest admiration of a pretty face," was the reply given, with a forced laugh. "I had quite an adventure last evening and the original of that picture had a part in it."

"Hello—there's trouble! Make for cover!" spoke Reddy sharply. There had come from one of the group preparing breakfast a birdlike cry, a signal, a warning with which every schooled tramp was familiar. Two strangers had suddenly intruded. One wore an official badge. "That's the man," spoke his companion, and he pointed to Blair.

Instantly there was the closing in of the circle. The presentment was that of the law against a comrade. The group were staunch and loyal for defense.

"This is no arrest," announced the marshal.

"No, it is just contrary," added his companion. "I would like to have you accompany me to my office," he addressed himself to Blair. "You were something better than a hero last night. As legal adviser of Miss Ina Trescott, whose life and property you saved, I am asked to talk over matters with you."

"I don't see the use," replied Blair. "I'm glad if I did all you say."

"He did something, you can count on that!" broke in big Reddy, "for he tossed all night with that burned hand of his."

Mystery Blair for a moment looked as though resentful of patronizing or reward. Then his hand closed on the half-burned photograph in his pocket. In the current of unusual circumstances, he decided to allow it to drift him whither it would.

He had been dubbed "Mystery" Blair by his comrades. He had joined the hobo contingent one day, asking the favor of companionship and variety, telling them he had made a failure of business life and envied them their unconventional existence. The evening previous, passing a charming little bungalow, Blair had seen smoke and flames issuing from its front. Cries for help echoed from the interior. He had burst in a locked door. Continued cries for deliverance nerved and guided him. He came upon a young girl lying upon a couch, evidently an invalid. Blair seized a counterpane, wrapped her up in it and breast the blaze. Neighbors had gathered and he had placed the girl in their charge. Then the memory of that confiding face, the soft, clinging arms, seemed an ideal, forcing him to further effort.

Three hours after the call at the hobo camp Mystery Blair was a new being in appearance. The lawyer had insisted not only on medical attention but a complete rehabilitation.

"You're spelling me for the road," Blair had remonstrated, with a quiet smile.

"Why hit it again?" challenged the attorney. "I fancy, Mr. Blair, that line is not your natural bent. Again, we must be presentable when we call upon Miss Trescott."

When he was in the presence of the fair young girl, just recovering from a spell of sickness, and her hand lingered gratefully in his own, there stirred within him new and vivid emotions. He had arisen to depart when his eye fell upon a little framed photograph on the medicine stand. He gave quite a start.

"Oh, Mr. Devon?" instantly cried Miss Trescott, greatly excited, "tell him! Can it be possible, that at last—"

The lawyer silenced her eager revelations with a gesture. He took up the photograph and led Blair into an adjoining room. It was a graphic story that he related—of wild, reckless Julian Trescott, the brother of Ina, getting into trouble foolishly, fleeing from friends who could protect him and losing himself among tangled highways.

Blair recalled the original of the picture. He was sure that nearly a year back he had met its owner in his wanderings. He was sure of it when he showed the picture to Reddy.

"You know every knight of the road," Blair said to him. "Can this one be found?"

"It would take some financing and it may be a long, long trail," submitted Reddy, and this was provided for, and two months later Blair reappeared with the brother of Ina.

Blair had bade good-by to the road and his old hobo comrades. As Waltham Blair, author, he now set about utilizing the experience he had gone through. He was at the new Trescott home one day.

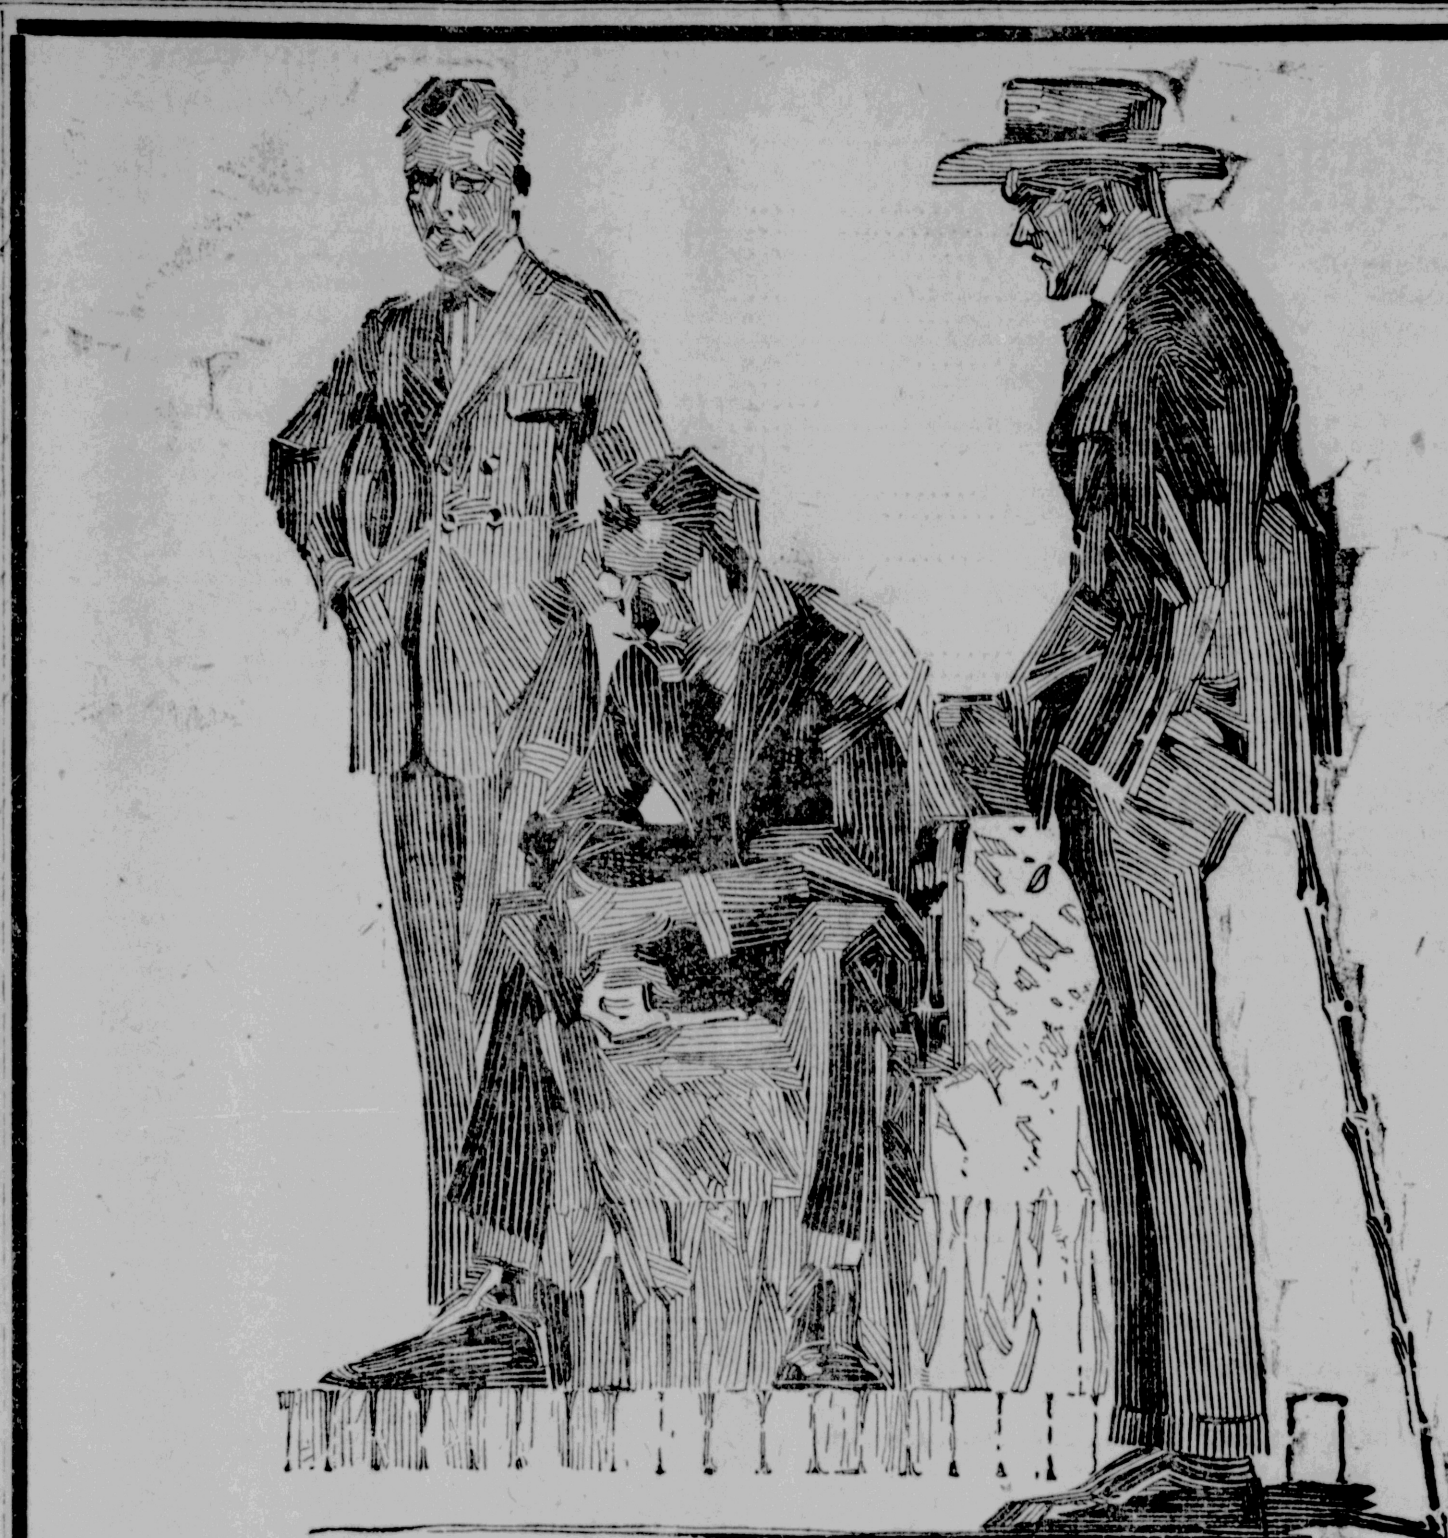

"Miss Trescott," he said, "I am glad to say that I have made arrangements for the publication of 'The World's Highway.' It was my first meeting with you that gave its plan an impetus."

"I am glad," spoke lovely lips and eyes.

"And later love made me successful in my ambition, love for you," he said.

Great Men Can Find No Other Book That Combines Its Literary or Historical Merits.

The bulk of the people—business men, lawyers, doctors and others—don't read the Bible, but writers universally recognize it as the greatest book. Prof. William Lyon Phelps of Yale university said in a recent address:

"Being a serious book, it is weak in humor," Professor Phelps said. "But I think Job intended a grin joke when he said, 'Would that mine adversary had written a book.'"

"No narrative writers can match the style of the Bible's Old Testament stories—Hume, Gibbon, Rose—they are all inferior. This is the day of the short-story writer, Kipling, De Maupassant, O. Henry, but their best efforts fall short of the stories of the Bible. So it is with its poetry in the Psalms. Its wisdom of the Proverbs is just as up to date as the morning paper, and there is no political economy equal to the Book of Gospels.

"It is possible to overestimate the Bible's influence on English literature. Bunyan wrote a great book because he was saturated with the Bible, and it trickled out when he wrote.

"Lincoln knew only two books—the Bible and Shakespeare—and yet he was a splendidly educated man. To know the Bible is to be educated. One of the finest metaphors in Keats' 'Ode to a Nightingale' is taken directly from the Bible; 'Nearer My God to Thee' is simply a paraphrase of the Bible."—Detroit News.

WARM WELCOME FOR TWINS

Their Arrival in an English Home Meant Two Extra Sugar Rations for Family.

Capt. Norman Thwaites of the British Intelligence department said the other day:

"The sugar shortage is felt keenly over the water. It's odd how you miss your sugar over there. You long for it as you'd long for tobacco."

"A Bayswater special constable hurried home from his beat at the Marble Arch the other evening to be present on a very interesting occasion, and, as he sat in his library in the small hours, the nurse came to him and said:

"It's all right, sir."

"The Bayswater man swallowed; he moistened his dry lips; then he asked: 'Is it a boy?'

"The nurse smiled soothingly.

"One of 'em's a boy, sir," she said.

"And the Bayswater man, instead of turning pale or smothering an oath, as he'd probably done in peace time, uttered a glad cry of joy.

"Thank heaven!" he exclaimed, "that gives us two extra sugar rations."

Water Broods.

There was a pool by which we stopped one day to look at a great dragon fly in golden mail lighting on a lily pad. I suppose that he did not live the season through, but his race has not lost a scintilla of his radiance, and there is a curious comfort in thinking that even in days like these, when mankind seems to have gone mad, and "when but to think is to be full of sorrow," I have only to go to the same pool to see a creature as beautiful, lighting on a lily pad as green, floating on water as pure. Nor is this mere sentimentality. To become aware of the fleeting permanency of all these bright short-lived things, their incessant change with essential changelessness, their passing beauties but persistent, beauty, brings health to the spirit of man. After his wars and revolutions he always returns to the brooks, and is surprised but happy to find them still dancing and singing—Robert M. Gay in the Atlantic Monthly.

FIRST TEACHERS TO CHINA

Missionaries Followed the Close of the War With Great Britain in 1845.

The first general attempt to introduce Christianity into China dates from April 24, 1845, when the Chinese government, following the disastrous war with Great Britain, granted permission to foreigners to teach the Christian religion. Missionaries from many countries began immediately to flock to China, but in most places the "white devils" were received with hostility. The Emperor Taou-Kwang, who in the latter part of his reign favored the introduction of European arts and religion, died in 1850, and his son, Hsien-Fung, adopted a reactionary policy.

One of the odd results of the introduction of Christianity in China was the appearance in 1851 of a rebel leader who called himself Tien-tai, and who announced himself as the restorer of the worship of the true god, Shang-ti, and derived many of his dogmas from the Bible. He called himself the brother of Jesus, the second son of God and the monarch of all beneath the skies, and demanded universal submission. His insurgent followers called themselves Taiping, or "Prince of peace," but the title was utterly belied by their atrocious deeds.

HERBERT BRUSH CO. INCREASES CAPITAL

Marvelous Growth of Industry During Its 30 Years in Kingston—Pay Roll Now $10,000 a Week and Still Growing.

An interesting evidence of the growth and development of one of our home industries is afforded by the filing in the county clerk's office of a certificate authorizing the increase of capital of the Herbert Brush Mfg. Co., to $300,000.

This company is now one of the most important factors in the business life of our city, employing as it does about six hundred operatives, and having a weekly pay roll of $10,000, which is in course of further development as they are increasing their factory facilities to take care of new business which is offered.

The business was removed from Brooklyn, New York, and started at Kingston some thirty years ago, in the location which is still retained on Greenkill avenue. At this plant which contains the wood-working equipment they are now erecting a modern four story factory to increase the present facilities, and replace the structure which was burned in August 1913.

Their new factory was the premises at Thomas street, now used for office purposes and manufacturing, and in succession the plants at Mill street and Pine Grove avenue, were added.

The Mill street factory, formerly occupied by the Washington Candy Company, is the largest of the group, and about four hundred employees are there engaged. This is the plant from which large quantities of brushes have been supplied for military use to the United States government.

In the earliest days of the war, when the British government was seeking supplies in this country, the inquiry came to this concern for quotation of price and terms of delivery on an order for a million brushes. The delivery conditions were of prime importance and while some bidders named a period of one to two years to complete the delivery, the Herbert Company agreed to complete the delivery in six months. This offer was accepted, and the efficiency of their organization and administration was shown by their furnishing the complete delivery five days ahead of the contract date.

When their deliveries were found so prompt and satisfactory, repeat orders were offered them, and the acceptance of these orders without any attempt to force inflation of price for excessive profits, gave them a secure place in the ranks of military contractors and in the confidence of the government as to their business capacity and fair dealing.

They have recently closed contracts for other classes of military supplies which will extend their employing power and bring new pay roll money into Kingston.

LOCAL DEATH RECORD.

Recent Deaths and Funerals of Persons in This Vicinity.

Anna Rosina Staerker, wife of William P. France, died Wednesday, July 3, at her home, No. 21 Van Deusen street, after a short illness. She is survived by her husband, her mother, Mrs. Katherine Staerker, and one sister, Miss Christine Staerker, of New York. The funeral will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. with interment in the Mt. Marion cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Kopf, wife of Fred Kopf, was held from her late home, at Ellenville, Wednesday afternoon. The service was conducted by Rev. Frederick Bresinski of Jersey City, former pastor of the local Lutheran Church. Mrs. Kopf was a daughter of the late Joseph Kolb, who was born in Ellenville 35 years ago. Surviving are her husband, a son and two daughters, also four brothers and two sisters. The interment was made in the Fantielkill cemetery.

The body of Mrs. Jennie F. Stone, wife of Oliver A. Campbell, who died at her home in Brooklyn on June 29th, was brought to Ellenville on Tuesday for burial in Fantielkill cemetery. Mrs. Campbell was born at Oxford, N. J., about 73 years ago, and was married to Mr. Campbell in 1872 and resided in Ellenville where she was well and favorably known until her removal to Brooklyn, where she has since resided, but was often a visitor in the village. Rev. W. S. Maines of the Reformed Church, conducted the services at the grave. Mrs. Campbell's mother was a regularly ordained Baptist minister, and she inherited her mother's ability and was devoted, not only to her family, but was active in church and charitable work as was attested by her many expressions of regret after her going away. Deceased is survived by her husband, one daughter, Miss Katherine E. Campbell and one brother, a merchant at Tacoma, Wash., also by three stepchildren, Mrs. Hattie Hammond, Charles and Edward Campbell, who accompanied their father to Ellenville for the burial. The bereaved family have the sincere sympathy of a large circle of Ellenville friends.

HURLED OUT BOY WAS UNINJURED

This morning while Herman Ritter, the Strand fish merchant, was driving his Ford car down the Hone street hill, it collided with a horse and wagon, being driven by a young boy named Benny Schipano, who was on his way home to St. Remy. The horse was cut about the body and the wagon was wrecked. The boy was hurled out of the wagon and fell in front of the auto. Fortunately he was more frightened than hurt and escaped with a bad shaking up. The accident occurred at the corner of Hone and Abel streets.

EXPLOSION AT HERCULES PLANT

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Kendille, N. J., July 5.—Several men are known to have been killed, several were injured and considerable property damage was caused by an explosion in the T. N. T. building of the Hercules Powder Company here this afternoon.

It is known that fifteen men were in the building at the time of the explosion. Nearly 3,000 persons are employed at the plant but all except those in the T. N. T. building escaped to safety.

B. Bonesteel, Mrs. George J. Smith and Miss Cora O'Neill as hostesses.

Smith-Wheeler

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford M. Wheeler, the wedding of Marion E. Wheeler to Clayton R. Smith, both of this city, was solemnized, at half after four Wednesday. Before the bride appeared, Miss Beatrice Freer very affectively sang, "Oh Promise Me." The bride entered on the arm of her father, at the strains of J. Mendelssohn-Bartholdy's wedding march, played by Ruth L. Wheeler, a sister of the bride. The bride was charmingly attired in an ivory crepe de chine gown and wore a veil of tulle, caught with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was bride's roses and sweet peas. "Flourish," Mr. Wheeler, her sister's bridesmaid, wearing flesh crepe de chine and carrying pink roses and lavender sweet peas. The groom had for his best man, J. Watson Wheeler, a brother of the bride. For two years Miss Wheeler was a popular teacher in the Kingston city schools, while the groom is an electrical engineer. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George M. Cranston. Both young people have many friends who wish them much happiness.

Marines at the Opera House.

A detail of five Marines are in town in the interest of enlistment for the U. S. Marine Corps and are co-operating with the picture presentation at the opera house entitled "The Unbeliever," a story based on the book written by Mary Raymond Shipman Andrews, "The Three Things," and endorsed by Secretary Daniels of the U. S. Navy, which accounts for the presence of these strapping fellows who are representing the branch of the service now fighting in the hottest part of the front. These Marines give a special entertainment of a branch of their daily duties which brought forth a tremendous round of applause last night. This entertainment will be given again tonight at seven and nine o'clock.

Injured at West Shore.

Billiard Match Tonight.

J. J. Malone, ex-champion billiard player, will give an exhibition of his skill at the Kingston Club this evening. He will play two matched games with local players. Mr. Malone has repaired the tables and put them in good condition for the games.

BRITISH DROP 122 TONS OF BOMBS

By Telegram to The Freeman.

London, July 5.—One hundred and twenty-two tons of bombs were dropped in one day by British airmen upon German stores and camps, the International News Service learned this afternoon from a reliable source.

More than one-half of the bombs were of dynamite construction. The airmen were thrown with remarkable accuracy, twelve military establishments were bombed 23 times in one week. German lines of communication were tied up.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, July 5.—Trading started after the holiday with a display of strength in nearly all the important issues at the opening of the stock market today, but business was quiet. Fluctuations, however, after the opening, were confined to narrow limits. Steel Common opened 1/2 higher at 107 with a reaction to 106 3/4. Baldwin Locomotive opened up 1/4 at 92, and lost this slight gain on the next few trades. Railway Steel Spring attracted attention, being in continued demand and making a further advance of 1/4 to 60 1/4. Maxwell as the most active of the motors, moving up 2 points to 32 1/2. Anaconda made an opening gain of 1/2, which was lost in the next few minutes. Reading moved in the same way, advancing 1/4 to 92 1/2, and then reacting to 91 1/2. At the end of the first fifteen minutes the leading stocks showed only trifling changes from Wednesday's close.

ad stocks. CGKPN366133—01. The market closed strong today; government bonds unchanged; railway and other bonds steady.

LAUNCH SUB-CHASER
FOURTH OF JULY

The employees of the Hiltibrant Dry Dock Company at Connelly celebrated the Fourth of July by launching Sub-chaser 373. The company has a contract for five sub-chasers and this is the second to take the water. The launching followed the close of the big parade in Kingston in which the company and its employees participated. At the close of the parade they returned to the shipyard where appropriate ceremonies were held. Former Assemblyman Joseph M. Fowler and Commander Allen, John Hiltibrant, president of the company and A. R. Hiltibrant, vice-president, delivered patriotic addresses. At the close refreshments and cigars were served. Sub-chaser 372 made its trial trip that day also.

A Musical Garden Party.

The Mendelssohn Club of Albany, Dr. Frank Sill Rogers, director, having volunteered their services for the benefit of the Red Cross, Mrs. George Fowler Hilton will open her home, "Stroomzeit," Saugerties, N. Y., on Saturday, July 6, from half past three to six for a musical garden party. The concert will be from four to five. Refreshments will be sold by the Junior Red Cross workers, and all will be welcome. Admission, fifty cents.

No Fires on Fourth.

Fire Chief Chipp stated this morning the Fourth of July was the quietest in years in Kingston as far as fires were concerned, as not even a still alarm had called out the department.

Bugs in France.

In the reign of Louis-Philippe, a Monsieur Terrat had been charged with the duty of fighting bugs in the barracks of Paris. It must be believed that the result was satisfactory, since by virtue of an order of the general inspector contracts were made in 1846 with Monsieur Terrat for the destruction of these frightful insects. Monsieur Terrat demanded 90 centimes for each sleeping room. In case the first fight with the bugs was not decisive, and if he should have to begin again after some years, the second operation should cost only 50 centimes a room. Moreover, in these operations he destroyed the insects in the arms-rack, guard house, police quarters and prisons. When he became old Monsieur Terrat offered to communicate the secret to the state for an indemnity. But this offer was not accepted. The secret died with the proprietor. And that is why the soldiers of today are yet struggling against the bug—Le Cri de Paris.

As to Purpose of Strike By Workers on Local Ship Yards.

The following statement in regard
to the local ship yard strike has been furnished The Freeman by General
Organizer John Rice:

July 4th, 1918.
To the Editor of the Kingston Daily
Freeman:

Sir:—Under date of July 3rd,
1918, the Kingston Daily Freeman
published an article bearing on the strike of the men in the several ship-
yards which I believe is misleading
inasmuch that it does not quote the
facts which caused the men to cease
work. The facts are as follows: During the month of March, 1918, the
ship carpenters and caulkers who
were members of the United Brotherhood, took up the question of the eight hour day, and appointed a committee of its members to visit the
several employers of the shipyards
and request of them recognition of
the eight hour day, the employers as usual denied the request and refused
to discuss the question.

The local body, let the matter rest
for some time, because some of the
men had stated that certain of the employers had told them that they
would meet the conditions which would be established by the government, in those yards doing government work, when the award was made by the government recognizing
the eight hour day and time and
one-half for overtime. The employers
forgot about their previous promise
and continued to hold to the ten hour
day. The members of the union
then requested their national president to send in a representative to assist them to organize the mechanics
more thoroughly and help them in
their effort to better their conditions
relative to hours and wages. This request was granted by their national president and an organizer was sent. About four weeks ago, the local
at a special meeting, adopted a resolution which contained a request to
the ship yard employers of Kingston
to grant the men the eight hour day,
and time and one-half for overtime and double time for Sundays and holidays (if worked) and the same
rate of pay as set forth in the government award, the same to go into effect July 1st, 1918, which the men
felt they were justified in asking.
They also appointed a committee of
two (of which the writer was one) to
visit all the employers and place the request of the men before them and request an answer. On June 17th,
the committee visited the several employers and placed the request of
an answer to same. The employers
in most cases refused to consider the request (one employer refusing to look at it.) The committee then made their report to the men in meeting assembled and the report
was laid over to a special meeting
held on June 27th at which meeting
the men decided that if the employers did not concede the eight hour
day and time and one-half for overtime that they would lay down their
and non-union men in the several yards. The men on strike also appointed a committee to meet with
any of the employers and said committee stands ready and willing to
meet them in behalf of the men at any time I may further aid that the men have and are acting in a peaceful and law abiding manner in spite
of any insinuation or assertion of
any one.

Respectfully
JOHN RICE,
General Organizer United Brotherhood.

ELLENVILLE.

Ellenville, July 5.—The Fourth
passed quietly in Ellenville. All business was suspended and if it had
not been for the floating of the American flag from business places
and from residences, it would hardly seem as if the Fourth of July was celebrated here. At St. John's Episcopal Church a service of prayer and
patriotic hymns was held in the morning at 10 o'clock. It was a beautiful service in which those in attendance with Dr. Hobson had a part. The prayers were for our country, our boys over there and for victory.

Several of the Sisters of St. Dorothy of New York city, with six of the girl pupils from the Academy, are occupying the late DuBois residence property on Warren street, during July and August.
Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Smiley of Minneapolis, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret R. Smiley to First Lieut.
Raymond Potter, M. R. C. Lieut.
Potter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank
J. Potter, of Ellenville, has had the excellent opportunity of six weeks'
attendance at the clinics of the famous
Mayo Brothers in Rochester,
Minn., where 65,000 cases a year are handled and from there Lieut. Potter
was ordered to the evacuation hospital at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Texas, and is presumably due to overtake now at any time.

William J. Gilleran, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gilleran of Maiden Lane, who is training at Camp Colt, Gettysburg, has received his diploma from Cornell University, graduating with the degree of Bachelor of Laws.
George D. Cook, formerly in the law office of H. W. Coons, now a member of the 7th Company, First Infantry Regiment, has been promoted to corporal. A letter recently received from him, dated June 24, France, stated that mail was being received
by him from Camp Dix several months overdue, but he was glad to
get it although so long delayed.
The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed at the P. E.
Church Sunday morning. Reception of members by letter or upon profession of faith. At the evening service

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR RED CROSS WORK

A call is hereby issued for volunteers among the women of our city to help in the work of caring for the yarn department of our chapter's work. This knitting department is assuming such important proportions that it now needs special helpers, and women who are willing to give their services for one-half day a week, from 9 to 12 in the morning and from 2 to 5 in the afternoon, are urged to report promptly to the chairman of the knitting committee, Mrs. G. D. B. Hasbrouck. The duties which will have to be assumed by these workers will consist of giving out yarn, instruction, etc., or sending out the same in response to county orders, and in keeping the necessary records of such distribution, and in the checking up of knitted articles returned. The work, which while it takes time, is very simple, will be carefully explained and it is hoped that there will be twelve women who will be ready and willing immediately to assist in this effort.

FOURTH OF JULY IN SAUGERTIES

Saugerties, July 5.—Independence Day was appropriately and patriotically observed in Saugerties. Weather conditions were ideal and fortunately no accident occurred to mar the pleasure of the celebration. The exercises began at 9 a. m. with flag raising at the high school grounds. After the ceremonies the parade was formed, with George B. Snyder, grand marshal assisted by competent aides, under whose able direction it was a decided success. The Red Cross Auxiliaries of Saugerties, Malden and Mt. Marion were well represented and deserved the respectful attention and applause they received along the line of march. The foreign born citizens, composed largely of Italian residents of Glasco and vicinity, made a fine showing. Carried with the Stars and Stripes were the flags of our allies, France, England, Italy and Greece. Participating in the parade: First division, grand marshal and aides, Saugerties Business Men's Committee, Saugerties Concert Band, Home Defense Unit, local men in military and naval service, Saugerties, Malden and Mt. Marion Auxiliaries, Boy Scouts' Drum Corps, Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, C. E. Hamlin U. E. K. of P., Junior Order Mechanics, Esopus Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men; second division, J. R. Tappen Post, No. 215, G. A. R., Sons of Veterans, Women's Relief Corps, village board of directors, town board, clergymen, foreign born citizens, Washburn Brothers' Co. Band, Saugerties Exempt Firemen, Washington Hook & Ladder, R. A. Snyder Hose Co., T. B. Cornwell Hose Co. and Business Men's Association. After the parade a large attendance and well pleased audience, at the high school grounds, listened to an able address by Judge Alton B. Parker. In the afternoon a program of athletic races, etc., was held on Main street. A community service flag representing one hundred and ninety-six Saugerties boys in the service was presented and unfurled, the gift of the Women's Relief Corps, and a stirring address by Prof. E. R. James concluded the program. Washburn's Band furnished music afternoon and evening. At the conclusion of Judge Parker's address yesterday, Auctioneer John Moran auctioned a quilt, presented to the Red Cross Auxiliary by Mrs. Harvey Shultis and daughter, Mrs. Leon Johnson, and realized the handsome sum of $312.

HIGHLAND.

Highland, July 3.—Mr. and Mrs. George Eyett spent last Friday in Poughkeepsie with friends and enjoyed the pleasures of the city.

Many of the people around here are picking currants and berries to obtain some extra money, for it is needed in these days.

Clarence Spedea was in West Park calling on friends last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Atkins entertained relatives from New Paltz last week and on Sunday they were guests of relatives out there and their daughter, Ethel, is now spending some time with those people during the summer vacation.

B. N. Whitley is in the city for a short time.

Captain R. H. Decker was in Poughkeepsie the first of the week on business.

Ladies' Auxiliary Club will hold their regular meeting on Friday, the 12th of this month, instead of the first Friday in the month on account of the Chautauqua, which opens up on the 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rhoades of Milton avenue have been entertaining guests recently from Kingston and Walden.

Pastor C. Schofield, with his father, mother and sister were in Middletown the first part of the week attending the Christian Endeavor convention. They report a very interesting meeting and were just delighted with the trip.

Miss Marjorie Melnas of Vineyard avenue is now taking a summer course in art at Saratoga.

Walter Seaman was in New York city last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Elting and Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman have had as their guest Miss Ella Zimmerman of New Jersey.

Joseph Schantz and daughter, Mattie, have been guests recently of relatives in Hoboken, N. J.

Miss Margaret Coddington, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Coddington, will spend some time at Chodokee Lake with several girls from this place who will all be employed there for several weeks. It is a very nice place and plenty of boarders to keep all busy.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cummings and children motored to Ashokan dam recently and had a delightful trip.

Camp Fire Girls held a food sale last Saturday on Ehrickson's lawn. We have not heard what the result was, yet we think they disposed of their eatables all right, for that seems easy for so many people do not bake, and even though they do, they once in a while like to sample some one else's cooking and baking.

Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Coon recently entertained relatives and friends from out of town.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cornell were out of town the week end attending the funeral services of a relative.

Daughters of America held their regular business session on Wednesday evening. They had a fine attendance and installed their officers for the ensuing term. At close of session refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

Some members of the M. E. choir were entertained at the Whitley home last Friday evening. They had a pleasant time and very bountiful refreshments were served at a late hour and every one there declared it fine.

Miss Laura Palmer leaves on Saturday for a summer course at Cornell. She has been home for two weeks and enjoyed her short vacation very much.

Elliot Thompson, who has been on an ocean voyage for a long time and who arrived in town two weeks ago for a brief visit with his family, has returned for another long trip. He is feeling first class and looking fine and we are sure, from what he told us, he has been well taken care of. Although it is just lonesome to be away from your family and friends, he states yet how little we know what is in store for any of us. We trust and hope he may return soon for another period of recreation at his home here.

Miss Ruby Cornell is spending part of her vacation in Chittenden with relatives and she just enjoys every moment of it and when time for studies come on she will be ready for fall work after having such a grand vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. George Auchmoody were out for an auto trip Tuesday.

Mrs. Myron Terpening has returned home after spending two weeks in New Haven, Conn., with her daughter and husband. Mr. and Mrs. John Graham.

J. J. Donovan and Joe Hockstiner spent a few days in New York city the past week and had a fine time.

Mrs. Henry Hoyer and Mrs. J. C. Leo and son arrived from New York first of the week to occupy their summer home on Maple avenue.

Mrs. Minnie Anderson of New York city spent a few days in this place with relatives.

Charles Stali is confined to his home by illness. His friends hope for his speedy recovery. He is a brother-in-law of C. C. Whittaker and is employed in his store.

Mr. and Mrs. Winchester Howell of Bogota, N. J., have been in this place spending the 4th and a few days before with Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Maynard at their home on Main street.

James H. Reese was a business visitor in Poughkeepsie Tuesday.

The Rev. F. M. Turrentine, a former pastor of the M. E. Church here, occupied the pulpit of this church last Sunday morning and preached a day and sermon. He and his family have a host of friends here and all were delighted to hear him preach. They are living here at present, but the Rev. Mr. Turrentine is away a great part of the time. He is looking fine and feeling the same.

LEIBHARDT.

Liehardt, July 3.—Alton Hornbeck of Whitfield, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Brown.

Miss Agnes Brown, Mrs. L. E. Lawrence, D. J. Brown and children, Rev. William and Agnes Brown, spent Friday in Kingston.

DOCTORS PREPARE TO ENTER SERVICE

Eleven Already Have Entered and Two More are Under Orders—Several Still Required to Meet Ulster County's Quota of 18 Men.

A meeting of the doctors of Ulster county was held at the city hall Wednesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. This meeting was called by Dr. E. E. Norwood, Dr. A. A. Stern, Dr. E. F. Sibley, Dr. Mark O'Meara and Dr. C. V. Hasbrouck, county medical defense committee. The meeting was called to order by Dr. E. E. Norwood, chairman, who read the following letter explaining the object of the meeting:

Council of National Defense.
New York State Committee, Medical Section

June 19, 1918.
Dr. E. E. Norwood, Chairman, Ulster County Auxiliary Medical Committee.

Subject: Committee Duties
1 In accord with our conversation, I am listing below the duties of the county committees so that each member may be informed of the exact character of work required of him.

2 Each county committee is requested to take a census of the physicians in the county, to report which are eligible for the Medical Reserve Corps, and which are not, stating, if possible, the reason for the latter.

3 The special task before each committee at present is to fill their quota of physicians for the Medical Reserve Corps. This for Ulster county is 18 men, 11 of these have been recommended for commission to date of June 1st; 7 additional applicants must be secured. There will be no draft of physicians as such, at least not in the present time. The age limit is 35 years for the army, 44 years for the navy.

(Signed) JAMES B. CLEMENS
Secretary

Dr. Norwood stated that at the present time there were over 20,000 doctors in the medical reserve corps and the surgeon general had called for 5,000 additional ones, of which New York state was supposed to furnish 500 and Ulster county's call was for 22 per cent of the men in active practice, making 18 of which number 11 had received commissions and several others had made applications. Therefore Ulster county, to meet her quota as stated above, would have to secure 7 more applicants who would be accepted as 30 per cent of the medical men are received, it will be necessary to have at least 10 applicants for commissions.

Dr. Leonard K. Stelle was present and made a few remarks and informed the physicians that he had received a commission as lieutenant in the reserve corps and had orders to leave for Camp Greenleaf, Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga. on July 10th.

Dr. C. P. Hutchins also has received a commission as captain and is ordered to report to Camp Greenleaf on July 15th.

The secretary, Dr. A. A. Stern, read a communication from the Council of National Defense, giving information in regard to the Volunteer Medical Service Corps. From this communication he stated that the medical profession of this country would be divided into two classes, first, the members of the Medical Reserve Corps or physicians in the army; second, members of the Volunteer Corps. Such physicians shall be eligible for membership in this corps as would be accepted in the Medical Reserve Corps were it not for physical disability, over age of 35, essential public need, essential institutional needs or dependents. Women physicians are eligible. Physicians who are not members of either corps and who do not make application for either corps will be outside.

The duties of the Volunteer Medical Corps are mostly home work, examination in the draft, correcting defects in soldiers treating sick and injured soldiers, etc.

It was a very enthusiastic meeting. Speeches were made by a great many physicians present. A noticeable feature was the presence of nearly all the older practitioners in the county. The chairman reported that the committee had been informed the honor list of Ulster county was made up of the following physicians who are now in the service:

Dr. E. D. B. Loughran, in France.
Dr. Frederick Snyder, in France.
Dr. Wm. Cranston, in France.
Dr. R. F. Dieckling, of Saugerties, in France.
Dr. P. L. Barnum, in service.
Dr. W. T. Eversburg, of Highland, in service.
Dr. Frank Johnston, in Texas.
Dr. Philip DeGarmo, in Washington.

Dr. Frank Keator, deceased.

SCOUT RALLY JULY FOURTH

Boy Scouts of Ulster County in Camp in Porsyth Park—Contests, Inspection and Award of Prizes.

In spite of the disappointing and in a sense the disconcerting fact that Scout Executive Soles was so hastily called to service on Tuesday, to report in Boston on Saturday morning, and was obliged to leave town on Wednesday evening, the rally planned by him and practically arranged by him proved a great success. The Scout Council was fortunate enough to secure immediately the services of Herbert Bircher, a most efficient Scout man, as Scout executive. Having worked with Mr. Soles in preparing for the rally as well as the camp which opens on Saturday, and having the lively and capable co-operation of Scout Master Coles, who was to have acted as officer of the day in any event, Scout Executive Bircher and Scout Master Coles, with the loyal backing of the Scouts themselves, put through the rally in great shape.

The Scouts began arriving at the camp at Porsyth Park on Wednesday evening. There were five tents soon pitched and the big camp fire was built in the sand pit, when greatly to the disappointment of all the Scouts, it came on to rain so hard that camp fire stunts were possible. Guards were posted for the night to watch the camp. Senior Patrol Leader George Matthews of Troop 6 having the first half of the night and Senior Patrol Leader Vernon Beehler of Troop 5 the second half of the night. A guard was set for each hour of the night. Two Scouts coming over late into camp were halted and punished for the breaking of rules. Early Thursday morning setting up exercises were followed by the flag raising and inspection of tents. The first prize for best camp for tent was awarded to Troop 5; the second to Troop 6. During the day, Jerry Yaple, of the U. S. S. Huntington, formerly a member of Troop 1, who is now home on furlough, was the guest of honor of the Scouts.

Following breakfast and inspection, the Scouts lined up for the big Fourth of July parade, and marched into town, taking their places with the other marchers. A very special prize of a handsome bugle, will be awarded to the best appearing troop in that parade. For some reason there was a slight misunderstanding regarding the awarding of this prize yesterday, and the judges did not get out to Porsyth Park to award the prize, greatly to the disappointment of the Scouts. As soon as awarded announcement of the winning troop will be made in The Freeman.

Directly after dinner the contests and demonstrations took place. There were seven events, for which the troops received points, which added together gave a first, second and third prizes to the winning troops. These were inspection, fire building, centipede race, knot tying contest, stretcher race, Paul Revere relay race, shoe race.

In commenting on these events it should be stated that they are especially valuable as creating that team spirit which is these days recognized at its true worth.

The fire building contest, for the most part with two boys from a troop at least, consisted of striking a fire with not more than two matches, keeping the fire burning so as to boil water in a pan set over the fire, each pan containing the same amount of water. The first panful of water to boil, won the prize for the fire builders. Prizes in this contest were won as follows: First to Troop 6, Floyd Hart and Clifton Eckert; second by Troop 5, Milton Budd and Archie Huestis; third by Accord Troop, John Myers and Harry Lawrence.

The centipede race, wherein the boys of the various troops, as many as cared to enter, astride a rope raced for a goal, was won by Troop 6, first; Accord Troop, second; Troop 5, third.

The knot tying contest was won by Troop 6, first; Troop 5, second; Accord Troop, 3.

The stretcher race, one of the best, consisted of one lad acting as the injured patient laid upon the ground. Starting from a set point, two lads from each troop, with only their staves, rushed to the patient, pulled off their scout coats on the poles, forming a stretcher, placed the patient thereon and hurried him back to the starting point. This was won: First by Troop 5; second by Accord Troop; third by Hudson Troop.

The Paul Revere Race (Relay), wherein several lads act as horses while one is the rider. He jumps on the back of his first steed who runs with him to the second, upon whose back he must jump without touching the ground, and so on to the end. This race was won by Troop 6, first; Troop 5, second, and Accord Troop third.

The last event, the shoe race consisted of the Scouts taking off their shoes tossing them into a pile, running to a certain point and back, finding their own shoes, putting them on and racing them and running back to the given point. Kingston Troop five, first; Accord Troop, second, and Troop 6, third.

As a result of these events, which counted points, prizes were awarded as follows:—First prize "First Aid Kit," Kingston Troop 5, having 26 points.

Second prize, Boy Scout bronze statuette, Kingston Troop 6, 24 points.

Third prize, Troop Record Book, Accord Troop, 8 points.

Then there were some clever special events. Splendid signalling was done by Edmund Beehler, sending; Vernon Beehler, receiving; Robert Hart recording. The message sent was "America Forever," and the winners belong to Troop 5. Each received a medal.

Troop stunt prizes were awarded to Troop 5 of Kingston, receiving a shield bearing the Scout insignia, while a second prize will be awarded the Accord Troop.

The elephant rider's tourney was won by Clifton Eckert and Fred Dressler of Troop 6, one receiving a Scout axe and the other a Scout knife.

The events were all warmly contested, and there was a splendid spirit shown among the losing as well as the winning Scouts, speaking well for the future of scouting in this vicinity.

At the close of the contests, Scout Master Coles called the winners forward, and Scout Executive Bircher presented the prizes, with a few words of commendation, and expressing for all the deep regret that Scout Executive Soles could not have been present to have reaped the reward of his efforts as shown in the successful rally.

KNIGHTS OF ROAD

By MELLICENT MEYER.

"Well, that's the limit! What's come over you—gone clear daffy?"

Course-grained and bearded-throated as he was, there was more of wonder than ridicule in the tones of Big Reddy, professional hobo. It was at the camp of a group of wandering ones that Reddy had come across Mystery Blair gazing fixedly at a photograph. With a quick flush Blair thrust the picture out of sight.

"Just honest admiration of a pretty face," was the reply given, with a forced laugh. "I had quite an adventure last evening and the original of that picture had a part in it."

"Hello—there's trouble! Make for cover!" spoke Reddy sharply. There had come from one of the group preparing breakfast a birdlike cry, a signal, a warning with which every schooled tramp was familiar. Two strangers had suddenly intruded. One wore an official badge. "That's the man," spoke his companion, and he pointed to Blair.

Instantly there was the closing in of the circle. The presentment was that of the law against a comrade. The group were staunch and loyal for defiance.

"This is no arrest," announced the marshal.

"No, it is just contrary," added his companion. "I would like to have you accompany me to my office," he addressed himself to Blair. "You were something better than a hero last night. As legal adviser of Miss Ina Trescott, whose life and property you saved, I am asked to talk over matters with you."

"I don't see the use," replied Blair. "I'm glad if I did all you say."

"He did something, you can count on that!" broke in big Reddy. "For he tossed all night with that burned hand of his."

Mystery Blair for a moment looked as though resentful of patronizing or reward. Then his hand closed on the half-burned photograph in his pocket. In the current of unusual circumstances, he decided to allow it to drift him whither it would.

He had been dubbed "Mystery" Blair by his comrades. He had joined the hobo contingent one day, asking the favor of companionship and variety, telling them he had made a failure of business life and envied them their unconventional existence.

The evening previous, passing a charming little bungalow, Blair had seen smoke and flames issuing from its front. Cries for help echoed from the interior. He had burst in a locked door. Continued cries for deliverance, nerve and guided him. He came upon a young girl lying upon a couch, evidently an invalid. Blair seized a counterpane, wrapped her up in it and breasted the blaze. Neighbors had gathered and he had placed the girl in their charge. Then, the memory of that confiding face, the soft, clinging arms, seemed an ideal, forcing him to further effort.

"You're spoiling me for the road," Blair had remonstrated, with a quiet smile.

"Why hit it again?" challenged the attorney. "I fancy, Mr. Blair, that line is not your natural bent. Again, we must be presentable when we call upon Miss Trescott."

When he was in the presence of the fair young girl, just recovering from a spell of sickness, and her hand lingered gratefully in his own, there stirred within him new and vivid emotions. He had arisen to depart when his eye fell upon a little framed photograph on the medicine stand. He gave quite a start.

"Oh, Mr. Devan?" instantly cried Miss Trescott, greatly excited. "Tell him! Can it be possible, that at last—"

The lawyer silenced her eager revelations with a gesture. He took up the photograph and led Blair into an adjoining room. It was a graphic story that he related—of wild, reckless Julian Trescott, the brother of Ina, getting into trouble foolishly, fleeing from friends who could protect him and losing himself among tangled highways.

Blair recalled the original of the picture. He was sure that nearly a year back he had met its owner in his wanderings. He was sure of it when he showed the picture to Reddy. "You know every knight of the road," Blair said to him. "Can this one be found?"

"It would take some financing and it may be a long, long trail," submitted Reddy, and this was provided for, and two months later Blair reappeared with the brother of Ina.

Blair had bade good-by to the road and his old hobo comrades. As Walter Blair, author, he now set about utilizing the experience he had gone through. He was at the new Trescott home one day.

"Miss Trescott," he said, "I am glad to say that I have made arrangements for the publication of 'The World's Highway.' It was my first meeting with you that gave its plan an impetus."

"I am glad," spoke lovely lips and eyes.

"And later love made me successful in my ambition, love for you," he said.

Not as Progressive.

A scientific magazine says the motorcar has passed out of the experimental stage. True, but what a pity it is that as much cannot be said of the drivers of motorcars.

CANNOT MATCH THE BIBLE

Great Men Can Find No Other Book That Combines Its Literary or Historical Merits.

The bulk of the people—business men, lawyers, doctors and others—don't read the Bible, but writers universally recognize it as the greatest book. Prof. William Lyon Phelps of Yale university said in a recent address.

"Being a serious book, it is weak in humor," Professor Phelps said. "But I think Job intended a grim joke when he said, 'Would that mine adversary had written a book.'"

"No narrative writers can match the style of the Bible's Old Testament stories—Hume, Gibbon, Rose—they are all inferior. This is the day of the short-story writer, Kipling, De Maupassant, O. Henry, but their best efforts fall short of the stories of the Bible. So it is with its poetry in the Psalms. Its wisdom of the Proverbs is just as up to date as the morning paper, and there is no political economy equal to the Book of Gospels."

"It is possible to overestimate the Bible's influence on English literature. Bunyan wrote a great book because he was saturated with the Bible, and it trickled out when he wrote."

"Lincoln knew only two books—the Bible and Shakespeare—and yet he was a splendidly educated man. To know the Bible is to be educated. One of the finest metaphors in Keats' 'Ode to a Nightingale' is taken directly from the Bible; 'Nearer My God to Thee' is simply a paraphrase of the Bible."—Detroit News.

WARM WELCOME FOR TWINS

Their Arrival in an English Home Meant Two Extra Sugar Rations for Family.

Capt. Norman Thwaites of the British intelligence department said the other day:

"The sugar shortage is felt keenly over the water. It's odd how you miss your sugar over there. You long for it as you'd long for tobacco."

"A Bayswater special constable hurried home from his beat at the Marble Arch the other evening to be present on a very interesting occasion, and, as he sat in his library in the small hours, the nurse came to him and said:

"The Bayswater man swallowed; he moistened his dry lips; then he asked: 'Is it a boy?'

"The nurse smiled soothingly. 'One of 'em's a boy, sir,' she said."

"And the Bayswater man, instead of turning pale or smothering an oath, as he'd probably done in peace time, uttered a glad cry of joy."

Water Brooka.

There was a pool by which we stopped one day to look at a great dragon fly in golden mail lighting on a lily pad. I suppose that he did not live the season through, but his race has not lost a scintilla of his radiance, and there is a curious comfort in thinking that even in days like these, when mankind seems to have gone mad, and "when but to think is to be full of sorrow," I have only to go to the same pool to see a creature as beautiful, lighting on a lily pad as green, floating on water as pure. Nor is this mere sentimentality. To become aware of the floating permanency of all these bright short-lived things, their incessant change with essential changelessness, their passing beauties but persistent, beauty, brings health to the spirit of man. After his wars and revolutions he always returns to the brooks and is surprised and happy to find them still dancing and singing.

Robert M. Gay in the Atlantic Monthly.

FIRST TEACHERS TO CHINA

The first general attempt to introduce Christianity into China dates from April 24, 1845, when the Chinese government, following the disastrous war with Great Britain, granted permission to foreigners to teach the Christian religion. Missionaries from many countries began immediately to flock to China, but in most places the "white devils" were received with hostility. The Emperor Taou-Kwang, who in the latter part of his reign favored the introduction of European arts and religion, died in 1850, and his son, Hien-Fung, adopted a reactionary policy.

One of the odd results of the introduction of Christianity in China was the appearance in 1851 of a rebel leader who called himself Tiao-tai, and who announced himself as the restorer of the worship of the true god, Shang-ti, and derived many of his dogmas from the Bible. He called himself the brother of Jesus, the second son of God and the monarch of all beneath the skies, and demanded universal submission. His insurgent followers called themselves Taiping, or "Prince of peace," but the title was utterly belied by their atrocious deeds.

HERBERT BRUSH CO. INCREASES CAPITAL

Marvelous Growth of Industry During Its 30 Years in Kingston—Pay Roll Now $10,000 a Week and Still Growing.

An interesting evidence of the growth and development of one of our home industries is afforded by the filing in the county clerk's office of a certificate authorizing the increase of capital of the Herbert Brush Mfg. Co., to $346,666.

This company is now one of the most important factors in the business life of our city, employing as it does about six hundred operatives, and having a weekly pay roll of $10,000, which is in course of further development as they are increasing their factory facilities to take care of new business which is offered.

The business was removed from Brooklyn, New York, and started at Kingston some thirty years ago, in the location which is still retained on Greenkill avenue. At this plant which contains the wood-working equipment they are now erecting a modern four story factory to increase the present facilities, and to replace the structure which was burned in August 1912.

Their next factory was the premises at Thomas street, now used for office purposes and manufacturing, and in succession the plants at Mill street and Pine Grove avenue, were added.

The Mill street factory, formerly occupied by the Washington Candy Company, is the latest of the group, and about four hundred employees are there engaged. This is the plant from which large quantities of brushes have been supplied for military use to the United States government.

In the earliest days of the war, when the British government was seeking supplies in this country, the inquiry came to this concern for quotation of price and terms of delivery on an order for a million brushes. The delivery conditions were of prime importance and while some bidders named a period of one to two years to complete the delivery, the Herbert Company agreed to complete the delivery in six months. This offer was accepted, and the efficiency of their organization and administration was shown by their furnishing the complete delivery five days ahead of the contract date.

When their deliveries were found so prompt and satisfactory, repeat orders were offered them, and the acceptance of these orders without any attempt to force inflation of price for excessive profits, gave them a secure place in the ranks of military contractors and in the confidence of the government as to their business capacity and fair dealing.

They have recently closed contracts for other classes of military supplies which will extend their employing power and bring new pay roll money into Kingston.

LOCAL DEATH RECORD.

Recent Deaths and Funerals of Persons in This Vicinity.

Anna Rosina Staerkker, wife of William P. Franco, died Wednesday, July 3, at her home, No. 21 Van Deusen street, after a short illness. She is survived by her husband, her mother, Mrs. Katherine Staerkker, and one sister, Mrs. Christine Staerkker. The funeral will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. with interment in the Mt. Marion cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Kopf, wife of Fred Kopf, was held from her late home, at Ellenville, Wednesday afternoon. The service was conducted by Rev. Frederick Brezinski of Jersey City, former pastor of the local Lutheran Church. Mrs. Kopf was a daughter of the late Joseph Kelb, who was born in Ellenville 55 years ago. Surviving are her husband, a son and two daughters, also four brothers and two sisters. The interment was made in the Fantiack cemetery.

The body of Mrs. Jennie F. Stone, wife of Oliver A. Campbell, who died at her home in Brooklyn on June 29th, was brought to Ellenville on Tuesday for burial in Fantiack cemetery. Mrs. Campbell was born at Oxford, N. J., about 72 years ago, and was married to Mr. Campbell in 1872 and resided in Ellenville where she was well and favorably known until her removal to Brooklyn, where she has since resided, but was often a visitor in the village. Rev. W. S. Maines of the Reformed Church, conducted the services at the grave. Mrs. Campbell's mother was a regularly ordained Baptist minister, and she inherited her mother's ability and was devoted, not only to her family, but was active in church and charitable work as was attested by the many expressions of regret after her going away. Deceased is survived by her husband, one daughter, Miss Katherine E. Campbell and one brother, a merchant at Tacoma, Wash., also by three step-children. Mrs. Hattie Hammond, Charles and Edward Campbell, who accompanied their father to Ellenville for the burial. The bereaved family have the sincere sympathy of a large circle of Ellenville friends.

War Savings Stamps are within the reach of everyone who conscientiously wants to save.

HURLED OUT BOY WAS UNINJURED

This morning while Herman Ritter, the Strand fish merchant, was driving his Ford car down the Hone street hill, it collided with a horse and wagon, being driven by a young boy named Henry Schipano, who was on his way home to St. Remy. The horse was cut about the body and the wagon was wrecked. The boy was hurled out of the wagon and fell in front of the auto. Fortunately he was more frightened than hurt and escaped with a bad shaking up. The accident occurred at the corner of Hone and Abel streets.

EXPLOSION AT HERCULES PLANT

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Kendille, N. J., July 5.—Several men are known to have been killed, several were injured and considerable property damage was caused by an explosion in the T. N. T. building of the Hercules Powder Company here this afternoon.

It is known that fifteen men were in the building at the time of the explosion. Nearly 3,000 persons are employed at the plant but all except those in the T. N. T. building escaped to safety.

SOCIETY NOTES.

There is every prospect of a brilliant season accompanied with much work for the war at the Twaalfskil Club. The entertainment committee of the club, which was entertained by Judge Thorne at the Waldorf Inn the other afternoon, have arranged the schedule of hostesses for the summer, and the club Saturday afternoon receptions will begin tomorrow with Mrs. F. R. Donesteele, Mrs. George J. Smith and Miss Cora O'Neill as hostesses.

Smith-Wheeler

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford M. Wheeler, the wedding of Marion E. Wheeler to Clayton R. Smith, both of this city, was solemnized, at half past four Wednesday. Before the bride party appeared, Miss Rebecca Frost very effectively sang "Oh Promise Me." The bride entered on the arm of her father, at the strains of a Mendelssohn-Bartholdy wedding march, played by Ruth L. Wheeler, a sister of the bride. The bride was charmingly attired in an ivory crepe de chine gown and wore a veil of tulle, caught with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was bride's roses and sweet peas. Florence M. Wheeler was her sister's bridesmaid, wearing flesh crepe de chine and carrying pink roses and lavender sweet peas. The groom had for his best man, J. Watson Wheeler, a brother of the bride. For two years Miss Wheeler was a popular teacher in the Kingston city schools, while the groom is an electrical engineer. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George M. Cranston. Both young people have many friends who wish them much happiness.

Marines at the Opera House.

A detail of five Marines are in town in the interest of enlistment for the U. S. Marine Corps and are co-operating with the picture presented at the opera house entitled "The Unbeliever," a story based on the book written by Mary Raymond Shipman Andrews, "The Three Things," and endorsed by Secretary Daniels of the U. S. Navy, which accounts for the presence of these strapping fellows who are representing the branch of the service now fighting in the hottest part of the front. These Marines give a special entertainment of a branch of their daily duties which brought forth a tremendous round of applause last night. This entertainment will be given again tonight at seven and nine o'clock.

Injured at West Shore.

Billiard Match Tonight.

J. J. Malone, ex-champion billiard player, will give an exhibition of his skill at the Kingston Club this evening. He will play two matched games with local players. Mr. Malone has repaired the tables and put them in good condition for the games.

BRITISH DROP 122 TONS OF BOMBS

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
London, July 5.—One hundred and twenty-two tons of bombs were dropped in one day by British airmen upon German stores and camps, the International News Service learned this afternoon from a reliable source.

More than one-half of the bombs were of dynamic construction. The missiles were thrown with remarkable accuracy, twelve military establishments were bombed 25 times in one week. German lines of communication were tied up.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
New York, July 5.—Trading started after the holiday with a display of strength in nearly all the important issues at the opening of the stock market today, but business was quiet. Fluctuations, however, after the opening, were confined to narrow limits. Steel Common opened $\frac{1}{4}$ higher at 107 with a reaction to 106 $\frac{1}{2}$. Baldwin Locomotive opened up $\frac{1}{4}$ at 92, and lost this slight gain on the next few trades. Railway Steel Spring attracted attention, being in continued demand and making a further advance of $\frac{3}{4}$ to 60 $\frac{1}{2}$. Maxwell as the most active of the motors, moving up 2 points to 22 $\frac{1}{2}$. Anaconda made an opening gain of $\frac{1}{2}$, which was lost in the next few minutes. Reading moved in the same way, advancing $\frac{1}{4}$ to 22 $\frac{1}{2}$, and then reacting to 21 $\frac{1}{2}$. At the end of the first fifteen minutes the leading stocks showed only trifling changes from Wednesday's close.

A call is hereby issued for volunteers among the women of our city to help in the work of caring for the yarn department of our chapter's work. This knitting department is assuming such important proportions that it now needs special helpers, and women who are willing to give their services for one-half day a week, from 9 to 12 in the morning and from 2 to 5 in the afternoon, are urged to report promptly to the chairman of the knitting committee, Mrs. G. D. B. Hasbrouck. The duties which will have to be assumed by these workers will consist of giving out yarn, instruction, etc., or sending out the same in response to county orders, and in keeping the necessary records of such distribution, and in the checking up of knitted articles returned. The work, which while it takes time, is very simple, will be carefully explained and it is hoped that there will be twice as many who will be ready and willing immediately to assist in this effort.

Saugerties, July 5.—Independence Day was appropriately and patriotically observed in Saugerties. Weather conditions were ideal and fortunately no accident occurred to mar the pleasure of the celebration. The exercises began at 9 a. m. with flag raising at the high school grounds. After the ceremonies the parade was formed, with George B. Snyder, grand marshal assisted by competent aides, under whose able direction it was a decided success. The Red Cross Auxiliaries of Saugerties, Malden and Mt. Marion were well represented and deserved the respectful attention and applause they received along the line of march. The foreign born citizens, composed largely of Italian residents of Glasco and vicinity, made a fine showing. Carried with the Stars and Stripes were the flags of our allies, France, England, Italy and Greece. Participating in the parade: First division, grand marshal and aides, Saugerties Business Men's Committee, Saugerties Concert Band, Home Defense Unit, local men in military and naval service, Saugerties, Malden and Mt. Marion Auxiliaries, Boy Scouts' Drum Corps, Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, C. E. Hamlin, L. R. K. of P., Junior Order Mechanics, Esopus Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men; second division, J. R. Tappen Post, No. 215, G. A. R., Sons of Veterans, Women's Relief Corps, village board of directors, town board, clergymen, foreign born citizens, Washburn Brothers' Co. Band, Saugerties Exempt Firemen, Washington Hook & Ladder, R. A. Snyder Hose Co., T. B. Cornwell Hose Co. and Business Men's Association. After the parade a large gathering of well placed audience, at the high school grounds, listened to an able address by Judge Albert B. Parker. In the afternoon a program of athletic races, etc., was held on Main street. A community service flag representing one hundred and ninety-six Saugerties boys in the service was presented and unfurled, the gift of the Women's Relief Corps, and a stirring address by Prof. E. R. James concluded the program. Washburn's Band furnished music after noon and evening. At the conclusion of Judge Parker's address yesterday, Auctioneer John Moran auctioned a quilt, presented to the Red Cross Auxiliary by Mrs. Harvey Shultis and daughter, Mrs. Leon Johnson, and realized the handsome sum of $312.

SAUGERTIES.

Saugerties, July 5.—Friends of the Rev. Father Talbot last evening presented him with a substantial token of their love and esteem on his departure to his new field of labor at Highland Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Hector DeJario and children of New York city are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Disbrow on Market street.

Mrs. Nye B. Reardon and daughter, Carolyn, of Montreal, Canada, are visiting her mother on Division street.

Harvey Eckert of Jersey City is visiting in town.

Joseph E. Drake of New York city was among the Saugerties visitors on the Fourth.

Private Oliver France and Charles McNally of Camp Union are spending a short furlough with their parents in town.

Charles Poland, for several years with Myron Bodell, groceryman, has resigned and will enter the employ of the Walkover Shoe Co., New York city.

CALL FOR COLORED MEN.

Six to Entrain July 18 for Camp Dix, N. J.

Local board for Division 1 of Ulster county has received instructions from the adjutant general's office to entrain six colored men from here July 18 to Camp Dix. They will leave here on the 9:05 a. m. West Shore train. The names of the men will be announced later.

BONTICOL.

Bonticol, July 3.—The services at the Dashville Reformed Church were well attended last Sunday.

Some Boy Scouts are camping on the old baseball and picnic grounds. Miss Ruth Ferguson of Walden made a short visit to her home here for the week end.

Miss Frieda Fears of Brooklyn is spending her school vacation at her home here.

Don't forget the meeting at the Dashville Church on Friday afternoon.
